IMPORTANT LETTER

From Gen. John A. Dix,

AMERICAN MINISTER TO FRANCE.

His Estimate of Horatio Seymour—Says He has not a Single Qualification for the Presidency, and that His Election Would be a National Calamity—He Urges as the Only Source of Safety the Election of Grant, on His Good Sense, Decision of Character, Moderation and Disinterested Patriotism.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—General Dix, the American Minister to France, has sent the following letter to a friend in this city. It was not written for publication, but the gentleman to whom it was addressed has consented to give it to the public:

PARIS, Sept. 4, 1868.

MY DEAR SIR: It was my hope that my distance from home would have saved me from all participation in the political excitement prevailing there, but I notice in one of the newspapers that I am heart and hand with Mr. Seymour. I am not aware of anything in the present or past which could rightfully subject me to such an imputation. I have been acquainted with Mr. Seymour more than a quarter of a century. He is an amiable gentleman, of unexceptionable private character and respectable talents, but you know, as well as I, that he has not a single qualification for the successful execution of the high official trust to which he has been nominated, and he is especially deficient in that firmness of purpose, which, in critical emergencies, is the only safeguard against public disorder and calamity. He has been twice, at different times, Governor of the State of New York, and he has in neither case had talent or tact to keep the Democratic party of the State together more than two years. I should regard his election at this juncture, when steadiness of purpose, decision and self-control are so much needed, as one of the greatest CALAMITIES that could befall our country. Moreover, he has been put in nomination by a Convention which has openly declared the purpose of those it represents to pay the greater part of the public debt contracted to preserve the Union, in depreciated paper. Such a measure would, in my judgment, be a palpable violation of public faith pledged under circumstances which should have been binding on all honorable men. Mr. Seymour has made public speeches to show that it is our duty to pay the debt in specie. In accepting his nomination to the Presidency, he adopts the declaration that it ought to be paid in paper. I know nothing so humiliating in the history of American politics as this tergiversation. It was perhaps, not unfit that Mr. Seymour, after presiding in 1864 over the Chicago Convention which declared the war a failure, should preside over the Convention of 1868, in which a proposition to discredit the debt contracted to carry on the war was received with tremendous cheering, and that he should be the chosen instrument to execute this act of national turpitude. I do not believe that the wishes or opinions of the great body of the Democratic party are fairly expressed in these proceedings. They have nothing in common with the statesmanlike views of policy and the high sense of national honor which guided the party when Martin Van Buren, William L. Yancey, Silas Wright, Lewis Cass and Stephen A. Douglass were among the most conspicuous members. I see but one source of safety for the country under the existing circumstances, and that is the ELECTION of GENERAL GRANT. In his decision of character, good sense, moderation and disinterested patriotism, I believe the South will have a far better hope of regaining the position in the Union to which it is entitled than under a man whose political career has been in nothing more conspicuously marked than in an utter infirmity of purpose. Independently of all these considerations I should be greatly surprised if the people of the United States were to elect as their Chief Magistrate a man, who was making at the Academy of Music, on the 14th of July, 1863, a speech deficient in all the characteristics of an elevated love of country, at the very hour when General Grant was carrying the victorious arms of the Union into Vicksburg, and when thousands of our fellow countrymen were pouring out their blood on the plains of Gettysburg in defence of their homes and the Government which Mr. Seymour was doing all in his power to embarrass and discredit.

I am quite willing you should show this letter to any friends who may take an interest in my opinion in regard to the coming election, and I am particularly desirous to remove the impression, if it exists, that I am in favor of Mr. Seymour and the repudiation of any portion of the public debt. I am, sir, very truly yours,

JOHN A. DIX.

Terrible Accident at a Funeral.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ELMIRA, N. Y., Sept. 22.—As the funeral procession of Mrs. Carr was crossing the Erie Railway, one mile west of Painted Post, the Rochester express train came along, frightening the horses of Mr. Carr. Mrs. Drake, a sister of the deceased, was thrown on the track and had both feet cut off. A child of the deceased was also run over and literally cut to pieces.

GEORGIA.

Full Particulars of the Camilla Riot—Fifty Men Killed and Wounded—A Resolution Calling Upon the President for Troops Voted Down in Both Houses.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ATLANTA, September 22.—Two accounts of the riot at Camilla have been received. One from a freedman, through Maj. Howard, District Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, and one from Sheriff Poor, of Mitchell county. Maj. Howard says: Ishmael Lunnor, a freedman, states he left Camilla on the afternoon of the 19th; that on the forenoon of that day he approached Camilla with Joe Murphy, William R. Pearce, candidate for Congress for the Second District, and F. F. Putney, white, and about seventy-five colored persons, all en route for Camilla, where Pearce and Murphy were to deliver political addresses. Upon approaching Camilla, the relator being in advance, was accosted by an armed and mounted white man, who at first stated he was in search of a Doctor to attend a freedman who was hurt by a falling tree, but who subsequently stated he was a courier, and advised the party not to go to town, that the people were determined that the Radicals should not speak there. Notwithstanding the warning, the party moved on, when they were met by the Sheriff and posse, who accosted Captain Pearce, and who was assured by Pearce that he desired and should speak in Camilla on political subjects. The Sheriff endeavored to dissuade him from doing so, telling him the people would not permit it. The Sheriff then went back into Camilla and again returned, saying he had done all in his power to dissuade the people from violence, but with no avail. The party moved to town. Pearce and Putney entered the town, dismounted and hitched their horses at the Court House. As a wagon containing the music entered town it was fired on by the mounted white man who first accosted him, and by several other white men, when the freedmen then started to escape to the woods, and Pearce attempted to rally them, calling on them not to fly. The colored men being armed would not stop. The relator, being mounted, dashed out of town past the freedmen on foot and past the musicians who had abandoned their wagon. Murphy and Phillip Joiner in a buggy also drove rapidly towards Albany. The relator dashed ahead and when about seven miles from Camilla, the buggy containing Murphy and Joiner was overtaken by four or five white men, mounted and armed. The buggy was stopped, one horse dashed riderless up the road towards the relator, and he saw the pursuers around the buggy, some of them dismounted. He then came as rapidly as possible to Albany.

THE SHERIFF'S STATEMENT.

The Sheriff states Murphy had circulated a circular among the colored men of the county ordering them to bring arms to the meeting advertised for the 19th. At the request of citizens, sheriff Poor with a committee of six, met the leaders of the procession when marching towards the town and assured Pearce and Murphy that the citizens had no objection to the meeting, but did object to their entering town with arms. Murphy and Pearce said the guns belonged to negroes who were in the habit of carrying them wherever they went. The sheriff replied that as a peace officer it was his duty to forbid the assemblage of armed men at political meetings, and assured them if they entered the town with their music and banners, followed by armed men would be a breach of the peace, and he would not be responsible for the consequences. The procession moved into town headed by Pearce and Putney in a buggy, armed with a double barreled shot gun, a Spencer rifle and two pistols with a quantity of ammunition, as was afterwards ascertained. Next a four horse wagon containing a band and a number of armed negroes; next a column of negro men on foot, between three and four hundred, attended by about twenty mounted outriders at least one-half, if not two-thirds, of whom were armed with guns, most with pistols. The music was playing and the crowd were noisy and threatening in their conduct. Murphy and one Phillip Joiner, a negro, were in a buggy and in the rear James Johns. An intoxicated citizen ordered the music to stop, but it didn't, and the column moved on. Johns' gun was discharged, but in an opposite direction from the procession, when the column fired a volley, many at Johns, but mostly at Maple's store, where six unarmed citizens were wounded. Immediately about twenty of our citizens sprang to their arms and fired into the column, by which two negroes were killed and an unknown number wounded. The negroes immediately broke to a thick cluster of timber one hundred yards north of the Court House. At this point there was an attempt made by Pearce to rally his routed forces, and our citizens, to the number of about thirty, a part of them being mounted, made a charge and completely routed the whole force, Pearce flying through the woods and fields, Murphy and Phil. Joiner escaping in a buggy up the road towards Albany. Several negroes were killed, and from the best information we have been able to procure, between thirty and forty were wounded, all of whom have been properly cared for. The Sheriff goes on to express the regrets of the citizens of Camilla entertain that at the necessity which brought about the occurrence in what was done, and the citizens still think it was their duty to obey the orders of the Sheriff to break up the unlawful assemblage. While they say the consequences are to be regretted, they do not boast what was done by our people. We feel that they have but discharged a painful duty imposed upon them by wicked and corrupt men now engaged in leading astray into acts of lawlessness the colored people of our country. The blame of the whole affair is put on Pearce and Murphy, and the citizens appeal to the law-making power of Georgia and the authorities of Uniten States to check the progress of these strolling criminals that are prowling about homes and distnrbing the peace and quietness of our war-stricken people. A book account of the Sheriff is addressed to the members of the Legislature.

MESSAGE FROM GOV. BULLOCK.

ATLANTA, September 22.—The rencontre at Camilla created much excitement here and throughout the State yesterday afternoon. The Governor sent a communication to both Houses relative to the disturbances in Mitchell county, recommending that the President of the United States be petitioned to send military force sufficient to preserve order in that county. The Governor says that in disregard of his proclamation issued on the 14th inst., the rights of the people to peacefully assemble has been violently and barbarously impaired, and the civil officers are wholly unable to protect the rights or maintain peace. He earnestly recommends the Legislature to make immediate application to the President for a sufficient military force to be stationed in Mitchell county, to maintain peace and protect the lives and property of citizens, and that the guilty be punished, after due process of law. The fact that this occurrence is the result of a determination publicly expressed by irresponsible persons of one political party that those of the other political party shall not hold meetings is too well known. It is gratifying to know the sentiment is confined to a lawless class and not countenanced or supported by responsible citizens. The misfortune is that such outrages have not been prevented, and unless physical force is added to the honest efforts of officers of the law, we shall be thrown into a state of anarchy in which neither life nor property will be regarded.

On the reading of this report a resolution was offered in the Senate to refer the message of the Governor to a Committee on the State of the Republic. Considerable debate ensued on the question of telegraphing to the President for military aid. A resolution was offered that as the Senate had heard the statement of negroes through the Governor, that an account from white men be read. A substitute was offered that a special committee be appointed to investigate the whole matter, and report forthwith all the facts. The House also authorized a committee of five to investigate and correct the account of the affair which has been laid before the Assembly.

In the Senate this afternoon, a committee was appointed to take into consideration the message of the Governor on the Camilla riot, made a report stating that the evidence submitted to the Governor is untrue, accompanying their report with sworn testimony. After an exciting discussion, a report was adopted by a vote of 22 against 10. The House, by a vote of 112 to 30, passed a bill appointing the first Tuesday of November for the Congressional election. The House received majority and minority reports relative to the Governor's message on the Camilla riot.

ATLANTA, GA., September 22.—The following report is from Judge Vason and Mr. Johnson, who were requested by Lieutenant Howard, of the Freedmen's Bureau, to investigate the matter:

To the Committee of the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Georgia:

We left Camilla this day at noon. All was quiet there. No apprehensions are felt of further trouble. The citizens acted under orders of the Sheriff. They acted as his police in the whole affair. The negroes of this county are all quiet. No bad feeling exists between them and the whites, growing out of the affair. But few negroes were present during the fight, except those in the procession. There was no necessity for any additional force to protect white or black. The wounded negroes are well cared for and have the sympathy of the whites. The whole difficulty originated in the right claimed by Murphy, Pearce, and others, to carry negroes into a political meeting with arms. The Sheriff disputed these rights and insisted that under the proclamation of the Governor and the law, it was his duty as a civil officer to prevent such proceeding.

(Signed,) D. A. VASON,
B. JOHNSON.

Messrs. Vason and Johnson, and Mr. Clark, a Northern man who came South since the war, certify to the good character of the parties who have made the statements of the affair, which, with Vason and Johnson's report, were laid before both Houses, and determined their decision in relation to the Governor's message and their refusal to ask the President for aid to maintain order.

NEW YORK ITEMS.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, September 22, 1868.

The bricklayers' trouble still continues. About half of the workmen are on eight, and the rest on ten hours' time.

The result of the National Congress of Workingmen, now in in session here, will be the establishment of a general Trades Union for the Northern part of the continent. Most of the Trades Unions of the country are represented, and they seem to hold a controlling influence. The President advised the workingmen to form a grand political party, which he said would prove a power sufficient to secure to them all their rights. This sentiment was loudly applauded. The proceedings to-day do not appear to be important.

The prices of dry goods, especially muslins and domestic fabrics, continue to decline.

King William's spacific speech and the adjournment of Congress has still further depressed gold, which is weak at one forty-three and a half.

The total import of specie here since the first of January, foots up six millions; the export ten times that amount.

The will of the late E. A. Stevens, gives over half a million for the endowment of Steven's College, at Hoboken, to be erected at once, and a million dollars to complete the famous Stevens battery which is to be presented when complete, to the State of New Jersey as a harbor defense. The balance of his fortune, thirty-eight millions, is left to his wife, seven children and two nephews.

Five distilleries were seized to-day for non-registration under the new revenue law. The revenue fraud cases are again postponed until Thursday on account of the indisposition of ex-Judge Fullerton, one of the Government counsel.

There was a pretty full attendance of members at the National Labor Congress to-day. After the transaction of some unimportant business, L. C. Hine, of Ohio, made a speech in regard to the distribution of labor and capital, and advocating a redistribution and equalization of taxation and offered a resolution for the appointment of a Committee of five on the subject of taxation, which was adopted. The afternoon session was occupied in the discussion of a question admitting Mrs. Stanton as a delegate from the Womens' Suffrage Association to represent the working women of America.

Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BALTIMORE, Sept. 22.—The Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F. last night visited Washington Lodge No. 1, the first Lodge formed in America. There are only two surviving members. The present Lodge met this morning for the election of officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows: E. D. Farnsworth, of Tennessee, Most Worthy Grand Sire; Fred. D. Stuart, of the District of Columbia, Deputy Grand Sire; James L. Ridgely, of Maryland, Corresponding and Recording Secretary; Joshua Yarzandt, of Maryland, Grand Treasurer. At noon the Lodge proceeded to the Gilmore House and at ten o'clock re-assembled and transacted business of a private character. To-night they visit a theatre.

Cricket Match.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MONTREAL, Sept. 22.—The cricket match to-day, between the All England Eleven and twenty-two of Canada, resulted in twenty-eight for the latter on their first innings. The play closed with a score of forty-seven for the Eleven, with only one wicket down. The first innings of the Eleven will be finished to-morrow.

SPAIN.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—The following additional news has been received from Spain: Concha is at the head of the Queen's troops. Prime Minister Bravo has fled. The Queen is at Sansabastain road between that place and Madrid at present. Martial law has been proclaimed throughout Spain.

PARIS, Sept. 22.—The Patrie publishes the following from the Spanish Embassador here: Madrid is quiet, though the people are excited. Troops are faithful at Cadiz. The troops and citizens are faithful, but the garrison has been reinforced as a precautionary measure. Other towns are quiet.

PARIS, Sept. 22.—The Moniteur has the following in regard to the royal army of Spain: General Chesta's brother has been ordered to command the centre; General Chesta commands in Cantalonia, Aragon and Valencia, and General Novalichez in Andalusia.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The telegraph in Spain is disordered in every direction. The news is uncertain and contradictory. Generals Prim and Deroda are at the head of the insurgent forces, and are marching on the Capital.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The people of the provinces of Coruna, Lugo, Orenz, Pontevedra, Murcia, Albacete, Husca, Searagosa and Ternel have pronounced for the revolutionists. The rebels are very strong in the provinces of Barcelona, Tarragona and Leavida. The "sovereignty of the people" and "appeal to the nation" are war cries of the insurgents.

LONDON, September 22—Evening.—It is rumored that the Spanish fleet off Cadiz has opened fire on that city, where, at last accounts, the citizens and troops remained firm for the Queen.

PARIS, September 22.—Official dispatches from Spain have been received here. They admit that the insurrection has broken out at Madrid and Seville, but its existence in Murcia and Galicia is denied.

PARIS, Sept. 22.—Gen. Jose Concha acting President of the Spanish ministerial council, has sent a circular dispatch to the representatives of Spain at all foreign courts assuring them that the insurrection will be suppressed.

The latest news from Spain indicate that the revolution is spreading and gaining strength. Cadiz was occupied by the rebels on Sunday. All the country from Malaga to Carthagenia is in arms. All the previous reports of the rising in Galicia are confirmed. The revolutionists have formed a national provisional government at Seville, which is the headquarters of the rebellion. It is reported that Espartero gives his sanction and support to the movement.

A French fleet is under orders to sail for Spain for the purpose of affording protection to French residents and their property. France will remain entirely neutral in the affairs of Spain. It is reported that the leaders of the revolution are undetermined as to the form of government to be adopted for the country.

LONDON, September 22.—It is reported that Peru has sent agents to Europe to make a treaty of peace with Spain.

ITALY.

LONDON, September 22.—Dispatches from Naples report that insurrections have broken out in Calabria, Sicily, in favor of an Italian Republic. The Italian Government has taken prompt and strong steps to put a stop to the disorders.

VIENNA, September 22.—A dispatch from Madrid published here says: The revolutionists demand the abdication of Queen Isabella in favor of her son, the infant Alphonzo, and the calling of an extraordinary session of the National Courts to settle the affairs of the country.

Telegrams to the Paris journals confirm the news of the rising in the South of Italy. The "Temper" fears that the Italians desire to overthrow the monarchy under Victor Emanuel. The "Gauclois" asserts that Francis 2d, the ex-King of Sicily, is the prime instigator of the movement, and that the rebels are merely acting under pretense of Republican principles.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—A party of about sixty persons in all, armed and many of them mounted, made an attack on the house of a Mr. Justice, near Cork, last night, and stripped it of arms, which they carried off. The movement was directed by an American. There was no opposition offered and no arrests made.

Patrick Doran and Daniel Moriarty, convicted of complicity in Fenian outrages in Australia some time ago, have been pardoned on condition that they do not go to Ireland. Michael Hanley, of this city, a convicted Fenian, has also been pardoned.

HUNGARY.

TRIESTE, September 22.—A deputation of Greek citizens waited on Admiral Farragut to-day, and returned thanks for the sympathy which the United States manifested for the patriots in Candia. The Admiral, in reply, said the people of America not only sympathize with the Cretans but will aid as far as possible the cause of freedom in Crete.

FRANCE

PARIS, September 22.—There is a report current that the Minister of War will issue orders for the dismissal to their homes of eighty thousand men from the army on furlough.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, September 22.—The King of Prussia has returned to this city.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

LONDON, Septembr 22.—Consols, 94¼. American securities buoyant; Bonds, 72⅞; Erie, 31¾; Illinois, 91¼.

FRANKFORT, September 22.—Bonds, 75½.

LIVERPOOL, September 22.—Evening.—Cotton; prices declined a fraction; Uplands, 10; Orleans, 10¼. Flour firmer at 28s. Tallow, 46s.

The Riot in Georgia—Indian Affairs—The Trial of Surratt—Storekeepers and Gaugers—New Revenue Law—Secretary McCulloch, Commissioner Rollins and Binckley.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22, 1868.

THE GEORGIA RIOT.

The following was received here to-day:

Atlanta, Ga., September 22.—Maj. Gen. Howard—A delegation of colored people going to attend a political meeting at Camilla were attacked by whites, because, as alleged, they were armed, and ten or more killed—probably fifty killed and wounded. William P. Pearce, white, Republican candidate for Congress, from the Second District, was shot in the leg; John Murphy and F. F. Putney, white speakers, were wounded. As far as known only two of the attacking party were injured. No further difficulty has been reported.

[Signed.] C. C. SIBLEY, Brig. Gen.

It is probable that orders will be issued to-morrow to the General commanding in Georgia to make a full investigation of the riot at Camilla. General Schofield was for a long time this afternoon in consultation with the President, after the Cabinet meeting, and there is no doubt his prolonged interview had reference to this matter.

MEETING OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON RETRENCHMENT.

At a meeting of the sub-committee on retrenchment to-day at the Treasury Department, there were present Gen. Van Wyck, Representatives Benton, Halsey, Randall and Senator Patterson of New Hampshire. The examined Secretary McCulloch and Commissioner Rollins. The principal reason given by these witnesses why the twenty supervisors required by law had not been appointed, was that the Secretary insisted that they should be chosen without regard to party politics, if not, then that the Democratic party should have a portion of them. The sub-committee also entered into and examined charges in which Binckley is concerned. It appeard no such charges have been prepared either in the office of the Secretary or in that of Commisioner, that although Binckley is a subordinate officer, neither of them had ordered him to proceed to New York to make an examination into the alleged frauds and malfeasance, and that he had made his report to the President and not to them. The Secretary testified that he believed Mr. Rollins in all things to be strictly honest. It is said by prominent politicians here and elsewhere, that he will be summoned before the committee to-morrow.

A PLEA FOR SURRATT.

In the Criminal Court to-day Surratt's counsel entered a special plea, claiming that Surratt is within that portion of the amnesty proclamation pardoning all parties for treason, &c., who are not under indictment for murder at common law.

Mr. Carrington entered a demurrer, saying the special plea is insufficient, inasmuch as the proclamation excepts persons under indictment or presentment on charges of treason, the said plea not setting forth that defendant was not then under indictment or presentment, and further, that the proclamation does not affect charges in the indictment. Mr. Carrington supported his demurrer in an address, and was followed by Bradley and Merrick for Surratt and by Riddle for the prosecution.

APPOINTMENTS.

The following revenue appointments were made to-day: Storekeepers—Wm. L. Ross, Edward S. Calvert, L. Varrentesen, F. K. Reynolds, and W. S. Nook, at Covington, Ky.; Isaac Rosenbergh, New York City. Gaugers—John K. Lloyd, 9th District, Ky. Tobacco Inspector—Wright Smith, for 6th district of Kentucky, vice G. Youtsey appointed as Assistant Assessor.

THE NEW REVENUE LAW.

The joint Committee on retrenchment is to-day engaged at the Treasury Department in investigation of circumstances attending the workings of the new Revenue law, with special reference to points contained in a resolution of inquiry, offered by Mr. Schenck of yesterday. Commissioner Rollins was for some time before the Committee to-day.

INDIAN AFFAIRS.

Dispatches from the Indian agent on the upper Platte state that one hundred and eighty lodges of Indians, under Spotted Tail were enroute for the new reservation on the Missouri river, near Fort Randall, the government furnishing transportation. Three hundred and fifty lodges refuse to go. Gen. Bradley started on the 16th with 278 infantry, to march through the country of Republican river to the Pacific railroad.

THE OLMSTEAD DEFALCATION.

It is thought the Government will not lose anything by defalcation in the Postoffice Department, as Olmstead owns property enough to cover the amount missing.

Riot in New Orleans.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 22.—Midnight—The city is in an intense state of excitement to-night. About half-past ten o'clock a disturbance occurred on the corner of Barbour and Canal streets, in front of a confectionary, one of the fashionable resorts, which was crowded. Several clubs, both Democratic and Radical, were on the streets in the vicinity at the time, who became engaged in a disturbance. Several shots were fired, and a skirmish with staffs of their lamps occurred, when all parties dispersed hastily. The cab stands were deserted and buildings closed during the melee. Several persons were hurt, but no fatal injuries are yet heard of.

LATER.—At 11 o'clock not a negro was to be seen in the vicinity, except those on the police force. Scattering shots have been heard in different parts of the city, below Canal street, and fears are expressed that further riotous demonstrations will be made during the night. Accounts as to the origin of the difficulty are conflicting. Various wild rumors are floating about.

The Ku-Klux in New Jersey.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The Ku-Klux are said to have invaded New Jersey. For some time mysterious warnings, with the symbolic cards of daggers, bloody heads and coffins have been received by Radical members of the military companies, threatening them with death, but no notice was taken of them except but as a series of stupid jokes. On Sunday night, however, Lieut. Bynner, of Company H, New Jersey Rifle Company, was knocked down by a slung shot in Kearny, and when found was insensible. Near him was a pistol marked with Ku-Klux hieroglyphics, and other evidences of the Klan. The police are now on the track of these mysterious marauders.

Row Boat Match Arranged.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The match for $1,500 a side between the Ward brothers and the St. John crew has been completed, and the first deposit made. The race is to take place at Springfield, October 21, three miles and return.

Mass Meeting at New Castle—Great Enthusiasm.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

NEW CASTLE, September 22, 1868.

EDS. GAZETTE: Our town is full of excitement to-day. Delegations in large numbers from every township in the county have joined other Republicans of this place in the grand procession. The "K. K. K.'s" under the leadership of Nasby were represented by at least two hundred and fifty men on horseback. They created considerable amusement. The procession was fifty minutes passing the Postoffice. Martial and brass bands filled the air with patriotic strains. The hotels are crowded, and the streets present a holiday aspect.

Ex-Gov. Todd, Ex-Gov. A. G. Curtin, Hon. F. B. Penniman and others are speaking on the "Green," in East New Castle this afternoon. The large crowd is attentively listening to the eloquent orations of the distinguished gentlemen mentioned. A torchlight procession will take place to-night, in which the "Tanners" of this place will march. The display to-night promises to eclipse all efforts of to-day. "W."

Blair on Reconstruction.

The N. Y. Sun has the following report of a curious and important conversation:

A well known gentleman of this city was conversing with Gen. F. P. Blair, Jr., not long since, upon the power of Congress to reconstruct the South. General Blair warmly maintained that the reconstruction laws were unconstitutional, and that there was no authority in the National Government to endow negroes with the elective franceise in the conquered States. "You are mistaken," said his friend: "the Supreme Court has fully decided the question in favor of the power exercised by Congress."

"How so?" asked the General. "I never heard of any such decision."

"I will give you the points," was the answer.

"1. The Supreme Court has decided that the National Government has the same powers and rights as regards the States lately in rebellion, as it would have toward States or Territories conquered in war with a foreign power.

"II. The Supreme Court decided years ago that in New Mexico, which we had just then conquered in the war with Mexico, the orders of General Kearney, the Military Governor of that Territory, had all the force of law and must be obeyed as such.

"III. Among these orders of General Kearney, in New Mexico, was a code of laws which he promulgated some time about 1847, by which the right of suffrage was conferred upon all males of lawful age, without distinction of color, negroes included.

"IV. This code, which was thus imposed on New Mexico by the military power, the Supreme Court decided to be the rightful law of the Territory, until it should be set aside by express act of Congress.

"V The apparent author of this negro suffrage code was Francis P. Blair, Jr., whose name was attached to it as Attorney General of the Territory."

"That's true," responded General Blair, "but I didn't suppose any d——d black Republican knew it."

Condition of the South.

The following is an extract from a private letter dated at Liberty, Bedford county, Va., August 7, 1868. It was written by a gentleman who had always been a Democrat and went to Virginia strongly impressed with the idea that the South was excusable for what she had done. His letter indicates where he stands now.

The rebel elements are now very hopeful, and apparently very confident of the success of Seymour and Blair. They seem to be perfectly carried away with the belief that the "lost cause" is to be recovered at the ensuing election—and as a consequence, they are extremely arrogant, vindictive and violent in their words and actions. It is about as much as a loyal man can do to preserve and protect himself by keeping as quiet as possible. It is unsafe now to speak publicly, unless it be at the county seats, where there is some protection from the government officers. Republican speakers are frequently driven off even at such places. In short, the rebellious spirit is again as rampant as ever. The native unionists say the state of things is just about as bad as it was in 1861. The poor negroes has a very hard time indeed. All sorts of violence and oppression is practiced upon them. If Grant and Colfax, and a republican majority in Congress shall be elected, I have no doubt but what reconstruction will be easy in this state. If we fail in that, so far as can be seen, all will be lost, and Union men will have to leave this country and the South generally. They could not live here. But I am confident that the republican party will triumph, and that the loyal Union men in the South will then be masters of the situation.

Which is the Conservative?

Wade Hampton says that the cause of the late rebellion is not lost, that reconstruction by Congress is revolutionary and void, and should be overturned by the sword. John H. Reagan, of Texas, the Postmaster General of the rebel Confederacy, says: "The duty of the Southerners is to obey the laws, accept the situation in regard to suffrage as it now stands, and, like true and honest men, to labor for the restoration of peace and harmony between the sections." Which is the Conservative of these two men, and which course is the way of peace?

Interesting.

"It is interesting," says a Democratic paper, "to observe how the military supporters of Grant one by one turn out to have been cruel and bad men." Sherman, for instance, and Thomas, and Sheridan and Meade.

It is equally interesting, on the other hand, to see how the military supporters of Seymour turn out to have been humane and patriotic men. Forrest, for instance, and Raphael Semmes, and Howell Cobb. And had they but lived, Quantrell and Wirz would have been added to the number.

THE Cleveland (Ohio) Herald says: "At a Republican meeting at Waynesburg, Ohio, recently, the Zoarites, a communion of separatists, now grown quite wealthy, and who have always heretofore kept away from political meetings, were out in force. They came in a procession, thus testifying their great interest in the Presidential campaign. The Zoarites have always been loyal people, being Quakers of very liberal ideas, and have always freely contributed for the Republican cause, but this was the first political meeting they ever attended." The Quakers of Pennsylvania are also to be out this year, it is said.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

HAIL TO THE CHIEF WHO IN SILENCE ADVANCES!

BY STANLEY WAEERLOO.

Hail to the chief who in silence advances,
The champion of freedom, the chosen of fame,
Wherever the sunbeam of liberty glances,
A theme are his actions, a watchword his name,
From the Pacific's sand
To the Atlantic's strand,
The heart of each patriot beats in his cause,
He who, with ready steel,
Struck for the nation's weal,
Maintaining her rights and upholding her laws.

The stream that can wrest with the force of a giant,
The rock from its bed, rushes silently on;
The man with a iron will, fearless, reliant,
Dealeth not in vain boasts ere his labor is done.
His no malicious tongues,
Wearing the country wrong,
Dividing our efforts, supporting our foes;
His was no middle course,
Going from bad to worse,
Refusing to aid where he dare not oppose.

When war over all spread its darkening pinions,
And thousands were bleeding our country to save;
When our flag was debased by the traitorous minions
And the land was engulphed in the terrible wave;
Firm as the mountain rock
Upon the sea-beat's shock,
Boldly he stood with his resolute host.
Vainly the battle's brunt
Dashed on his iron front,
The traitors were broken, their victory lost.

Though the strife with the bayonet and bullet is ended,
Yet again to the triumph he's leading us on,
To uphold the cause he so nobly defended,
And by wisdom our preserve what by valor he won.
"Peace," is our battle cry,
"Peace and equality;"
While from each Southern hill, valley and plain,
Filling the silent air
Soldiers who perished there,
Arising exhort us to conquest again.

When autumn's arrayed in the robes of November,
And the struggle for justice and liberty done,
Then shall the traitors have cause to remember,
The battle they lost and the battle we won.
Telling the people's will,
Proving them loyal still,
Then shall the spirit of Freedom arise;
Say with a mighty voice,
"Grant is the nation's choice!"
Ring the glad tidings aloud to the skies!

—Red Jacket, the Indian Chief, has been warning through the spiritual mediums, that trouble will come upon every one who kills the poor innocent Indians out west.

—What do German laboring men think of a Hoff-mann for a laboring man's candidate in New York? Hoff-narr would be more fitting if he really expects to succeed.

—The Venezuela system of taking care of lunatics is said to be a good one for that climate; they are suffered to go at large, and no attention is paid to them and they do no harm.

—Bridget Mary O'Toole is not a romantic name, but its Hibernian possessor swam out into the sea at Nahant and at the risk of her own saved the lives of two drowning ladies. The Humane society will give her a medal.

—There are sixteen preachers, thirty-nine farmers, eight merchants, eight pedagogues, seven doctors, seven builders, six carpenters, four lawyers, four coach makers, three tailors and two masons in the South Carolina Legislature.

—An exchange thinks if the Missionaries want to hold their prayer meetings in the headquarters of vice, they had better drop John Allen and Tommy Hadden, and go to the New York City Hall at once.

—The Richings Opera troupe, the White Fawn, with Bonfanti and Sohlke, and the Can-Can with Ventreroli, the Hanlon Brothers, Waugh's Italia, Hooley's and Carncross and Dixey's minstrels, are all amusing Philadelphia.

—When watching the Post doing its recent examples in arithmetic and declaring its astounding results, Boker's words seem apt enough:

Beneath the scorn of every eye
How eloquent their voices sound.

—Frank Blair fought the rebels and now fraternizes with them, which caused some one to effuse as follows:

O Franky he can fight!
And Franky he can slay!
But when his enemies come in sight
He with them walks away.

—In order to convince themselves of victories in Maine and Vermont the Democracy must nearly have exhausted their lie-abilities; so before the October elections come off we advise them to lay in a lot of saponifier or other concentrated lye.

—No one need think that Pennsylvanians, because they supported President Lincoln in the repudiation of the bonds of the black man, will also support the repudiation of any other bonds. That is by no means a logical sequence or a fact.

—Last week three barks one brig and one steamer, took 467,770 gallons of petroleum out of Philadelphia to foreign ports, making the total exports this year amount to 27,562,677 gallons, since the first of January. Twenty-five vessels are now chartered and loading with petroleum in that port.

—The stock yard for cattle in Chicago comprises 345 acres, (of which 90 are planked); 25,000 cattle pens; artesian wells that supply 700,000 gallons of water per day; and seventeen miles of railroad connections with all the lines which run into the city. It is a town for cattle, on the most improved principles.

—The Hartford, Conn., National Screw Company has bought a large piece of property in that city on which it intends to erect large works, consisting of two buildings, one of one story and one of four, but each 150 feet long. This company, which now employs fifty hands, will largely increase the number of employes when the new works are ready.

—A Bury (England) paper says: "It having been known that bees were working in the roof of All Saints' Church, from which honey had been observed to flow for some time past, Mr. Barber, the church clerk, obtained authority from the church wardens to remove them, and in doing so obtained no less than a hundred-weight of honey."

—The eldest son of Don Juan de Bourbon has officially declared himself to be Charles VII., and wants to be King of Spain. This kingdom has had more than its share of the Bourbon torture, and to get rid of the Queen merely to take the Bourbon King is a very risky experiment. If they have revolution, they surely might have an effectual one at once.

—The creditors of residents in Virginia will soon be able to recover the debts due them. The stay-law of that State expires by limitation on the 1st of next January. The original act, passed March 2, 1866, was operative until January 1, 1868, but on March 2, 1867, another act was passed amendatory of the first, and extending its operation to January 1, 1869.

—Tar water, it is asserted, may be employed for dying silk and wool with the color called gris cendre or ash-gray. The stuff is first mordanted with weak perchloride of iron, by soaking in the solution for some hours. It is then drained and passed through the bath of tar water. The oxyphenate of iron, which is thus precipitated on the fabric, gives a very solid color.

—"General" Sam Cary's title is perhaps a little apocryhal. Some one has taken the trouble to examine all the military registers of the Union army and can't find Cary there, so he was perhaps dubbed in the ex-Confederacy, or, more probably, has assumed the title with the gold headed cane, gilt watch chain, etc., the more to resemble the horny handed working man he affects to be.

—Ritualism in Canada has received decided marks of disapproval from the Provincial Synod of the Church of England, now in session in Montreal. On Friday, the Synod adopted a resolution forbidding the elevation of the elements, the use of incense, the mixing of water with wine, the use of the wafer—bread, of lights on the communion table and the wearing of vestments while saying prayers.

—As the champion wicked man is beginning to pall on the palates of sensation-gourmands, a new champion has been found, it is the champion musquito which was captured in the interior of New York, is four and three-eighth inches in length, and twelve dollars has been refused for him by his owner. We, ourselves, profess to be a connoiseur in mosquitoes, but never have seen anything quite so large in that line.

—The following verse can be committed to memory by the little Democrats whose fathers calculate according to the Post's arithmetic:

"Twice one is five,
Carry four makes seven;
Twice six is twenty-nine,
And eighteen's eleven;
And between you and me,
It is very plain to see
We can carry all the States
By the double rule of three."

A NEW YORK paper says: A sensation was created among the uptown people this morning by the discovery of the perfect remains of a human foot and leg, embedded in some granite, which the quarrymen are blasting at the corner of Tenth avenue and Forty-second street. The granite is a pale color, and the human remains are perfectly black. The questions for the philosophers and the ethnologists now are, are these the relics of some primeval man, and was this primeval man black?

RIVER NEWS.

The river is again rising steadily under the influence of the recent rains, and last evening, the Monongahela marks indicated seven feet. A drizzling fell nearly all day yesterday, and judging from present indications, there will doubtless be another coal boat rise.

There has been quite a number of arrivals since the date of our last report, including the Yorktown, America and New York, from Cincinnati, and Bellevernon, from St. Lovis. The first three boats were loaded mainly with metal.

The Kenton, for Cincinnati, and Mary Davage, for St. Louis, Ingomar, for Parkersburg departed; also, the Julia No. 2, for Zanesville.

The Grey Eagle, got off Glass House yesterday, and will take her departure for Parkersburg to-day at noon, Capt. C. L. Brennan, in command.

The Kate Putnam, Capt. G. W. Reed, is filling up steadily for Cincinnati and Louisville, and passeagers, and shippers should bear this in mind. Messrs. Young and Harbison, are associated together in the office.

The J. N. McCullough was advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Tuesday.

The Glasgow, from Cincinnati, was due last night.

The Ida Rees No. 2, Capt. G. W. Albert, is announced for Cincinnati and Louisville forthwith.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Duncan McDonald, of the firm of Haworth, McDonald & Co., Liberty street. Mr. McDonald was well-known to a number of steamboatmen; was a brother-in-law of Mr. J. N. McCullough, the well-known railroad man, and formerly resided at Wellsville, Ohio.

—The J. N. McCullough, arrived at Cincinnati, on Sunday with a good trip.

—Capt. Ed. Evans, was to have left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh, on Monday.

—The trial of Capt. W. B. Donaldson, of the Great Republic, is set for Friday of this week.

—The Convention of Western Steamboatmen assembles at Louisville, on Wednesday, 23d.

—The St. Charles is expected to come off the docks at Cincinnati on Tuesday, and leave for Pittsburgh October 4.

—The Lake Erie, with 14 barges of coal, containing about 126,000 bushels of coal, left Louisville for Cairo on Saturday.

—The Messenger arrived at Cincinnati on Monday morning, and was advertised to leave there the same evening for St. Louis.

—Work has commenced on the bridge to be erected over the Kentucky River, at Clay's Ferry, and in a short time it will be fully completed.

—The Camelia and Glendale left St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Saturday. The latter boat is reported as having left there with six hundred tons.

—Captain Grant Marsh, we hear, has sold his interest in the Nile, to Captain Wm. B. Haslett, of Pittsburgh, and Captain Draffer now commands the boat.

—Capt. John C. Reno is working up the proposed Congressional excursion. He will visit all of the towns between Cincinnati and Pittsburgh, in behalf of the project.

—Capt. Wash. Kerr, on Saturday last, offered $13,500 for the steamer Anna, at Cincinnati, which was refused. The owners of the Anna gave that figure as the selling price, but when they found it would be accepted concluded not to sell.

—Captain Henry Miller, on Saturday, bought Captain D. Smedley's half interest in the Fanny Brandeis, at the rate of $6,300 cash for the whole boat, and now owns seven-eights of the boat. Kitt Rudd owns one-eighth. The Brandeis is at Evansville, where the contract was closed.

—Additional claims are being filed with the United States Marshal against the Great Republic. Captain Donaldson has expressed his willingness that she should be sold. The boat may be sold, therefore, in a short time. Experienced boatmen say that bids for her will, probably, not exceed $70,000.

—The Louisville Journal says: General Weitzel's corps of engineers are still employed in making surveys along the canal, with a view to its enlargement. Uncle Sam could not engage in a more profitable enterprise. The Louisville and Portland canal, enlarged and free of toll, will add millions of Western commerce.

—We have no additional particulars in regard to the sinking of the Silver Cloud, except that at last accounts there were about eighteen inches water on her main deck. She was valued at $14,000, and insured for $10,000—distributed in the following Cincinnati offices: Crescent, $2,000; Queen City, $3,000; Commercial, $2,000; American, $2,000; Ohio Valley, $2,500.

—The St. Loius Republican of Monday says: Capt. R. C. Gray, one of the "big guns" of the Northern line, arrived in this city on Saturday, from Pittsburgh. He reports work on the new packet that is being built at Wheeling as progressing finely, and adds that the N. L. Co. will have at least three new boats in the line next spring. This looks business and promises hot work for the "White Collars."

—We clip the following from the Cincinnati Gazette, of Monday: In our issue of the 11th we announced that the Louisville owners of the Norman had accepted the offer of Capt. Yerkes for the purchase of that steamer. This was true, and the contract was afterward signed. However, "there is many a slip," &c. It seems that the owners above referred to afterward repented their bargain, and refused to give the boat up when called for. S. N. Fowler, and others, of this city, have therefore brought suit against Varble, May, and others, of Louisville, for $10,000 damages, for violation of contract. Capt. Yerkes returned home on the mail boat yesterday.

—The Evansville Journal of Friday says: "Quite a tragic affair occurred at the wharf yesterday, resulting in the death of a white man, named Wm. Carney, by drowning, who was a fireman on the steamer Linton. It appears that Carney had some trouble on the trip up the river with some of the negro deck hands, and that when the boat landed at the wharf this trouble was again revived. Just before noon yesterday, the captain of the boat heard a noise on the lower deck, and on going down succeeded in preventing a difficulty. After he had returned, the negroes set upon the man Carney, and chased him about the boat from one place to another, until, at last, he was chased to the fan-tail, from which he jumped into the river and was drowned. It was stated that the negroes threw lumps of coal and sticks of cord wood at the man until he sunk to rise no more. It was impossible to get full particulars of the affair, however. Sixteen of the deck hands were arrested and lodged in the city prison."

WE MUST correct our statement as to the Nebraska election this year. Our Omaha exchanges announce that event for the 13th of October, the same day as in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana.

"VOTE the Democratic ticket or starve!" That is the Democratic manifesto from the rich land-holding rebels of the South, to all the poor men, white and black. And the Northern Democracy are equally proscriptive wherever they dare to show their true colors.

THE PRESIDENT is determined to visit Tennessee before the October election, addressing "a few remarks" to the people at any points on his route, where he may be invited to speak. Our Democracy should ot fail to welcome their friend in this way—the most agreeable to his tastes of any which could be devised. His earlier intention of taking New York City in his route is likely to be abandoned, under the earnest remonstrances of leading Democratic politicians.

THE CONNELLSVILLE RAILWAY.

It is understood that an unusually large number of contractors have sent in proposals for the work to be done on this railway, the period for receiving bids having expired on the 20th. Among these parties were many gentlemen of large pecuniary ability and much experience in railway construction. This indicates not only the importance of the work offered for competition, but is a proof of the confidence entertained, by a very shrewd and practical class of men, that the Pittsburgh and Connellsville railway is in earnest and capable hands, and that it is now bound to go through.

VOLUNTEERS TO THE FRONT.

We recently proposed to keep a record of the prominent Democrats who are leaving the BLAIR party, but they are stampeding over from Copperheadism to GRANT and Peace by battalions, and any special enumeration is out of the question. We can only make occasional note of the most recent and distinguished among those citizens, whose patriotism is more potent than their attachment to a party which is going rapidly to its own destruction. Such are JOSEPH M. BLAKE, the most prominent Democratic lawyer in Rhode Island, Hon. J. M'LEOD MURPHY, of New York, whom the Tammany Democrats elected to the State Senate by nearly 5,000 majority in '60, and H. L. WAIT, Esq., of Albany, who was a Democratic Assemblyman in '63, and has always been known as the most influential Democrat in his district. None of these men can stand the false Democracy of revolution and repudiation, and have ordered their names to be put down on the roll for GRANT, a Constitutional Government and Peace.

DIX AND SEYMOUR—A WORD FOR PATRIOTS!

We present to our readers, in the letter of Gen. JOHN A. DIX, one of the most significant and influential developments of this canvass. The writer, himself a Democrat, and the peer of those eminent men whose leading counsels with that party in other days contributed mainly to its great potency over National affairs, and whose illustrious names he cited, now occupies the responsible position of Minister from this Republic to the Imperial Court of France, confided in by our own government, administered as it is, so far as parties are concerned, in the interests of the same Democratic party. Gen. DIX long since won the perfect confidence of his countrymen by the purity of his unselfish patriotism in all the walks of public life, and above all, by his splendid vindication of the Supremacy of the Union and its laws, whether in coming to the rescue in 1860 as one of Mr. BUCHANAN'S cabinet counsellors, or in the four subsequent years when placed in a high military command and upholding that flag for which he would as freely have given his own life as he would have defended it in the summary punishment of any traitors who should dare to drag it down.

It is this citizen, a life-time Democrat of the strictest sect, who now exemplifies the purity, the sincerity and the elevated patriotism of Democracy as understood by him and by those other great men of the party in the days of its culminating glory, by these pregnant words of warning sent from over the Atlantic. Twenty-five years of personal knowledge of HORATIO SEYMOUR—of his character, capacity and fitness for public trusts—entitles Gen. DIX, bearing a generous testimony to the private virtues of his friend, to admonish his countrymen of the illimitable peril of their honor, their peace and their free institutions, which must attend upon a possible election of Mr. SEYMOUR to the Presidency. His warning is conveyed in language so clear, so manly and so decisive that it must remind the awakened people of that never-to-be-forgotten order, "If any man pulls down the American flag, shoot him on the spot." He now implores his countrymen to beware of entrusting power to a man "who has not a single qualification for the execution of that high trust"; "who is deficient in that firmness of purpose which, in critical emergencies, is the only safeguard against public calamity"; "whose election, at this time, would be one of the greatest calamities that could befall our country"; "whose tergiversation is the most humiliating incident in American politics"; and who "is only fit to be the chosen instrument to execute an act of national turpitude." Was ever stronger language used by indignant patriotism? Was there ever a nobler or more eloquent protest against a National dishonor?

If there be any Democrat—and thank Heaven! we sincerely believe there are many thousands of such—who, in view of the past struggle of this Nation for its life, in view of the too palpably dangerous tendency of the new and abominable doctrines interjected into his political creed by men who are traitors alike to the Republic and to the Democracy, and in view of the later developments, as inevitable as they are alarming, of these treasonable inculculations in fresh bloodshed and fatal intestine commotions—stands hesitating as to his duty, the duty of every good citizen in this emergency, we implore all such to take these words of JOHN A. DIX, as thorough a Democrat as ever led the councils of the party, into his own breast and give them the consideration due to their significance and to the high motives and indisputable influence of the distinguished writer. Read them, mark and inwardly digest this lesson, and then, if you will, if you can, deny your voice to your country or your vote to him whose election is to bring final and perfect concord upon our too long distracted land.

FRESH FRUITS OF THE BLAIR DEMOCRACY.

The rebels of Georgia will not restrain their impatience; they cannot wait even for the election of BLAIR. The sympathies of the Northern Copperheads, the revolutionary programme of their candidates, and the absolute surrender of the Democratic party to the advocates of another rebellious resistance to the laws and Government of the Union, have so fired the rebel heart that the work of butchery has been already commenced, some fifty citizens having been killed or wounded at Camilla, whose only offense was that, quietly and peaceably, the most of them being unarmed, they were about to hold a Republican meeting. Free speech no more suits the Georgia Ku-Kiux than their Northern Democratic friends, and they have proceeded at once to inaugurate the New York platform by organizing a massacre of which the details have been laid before our readers.

All the circumstances of this affair were so atrociously indicative of the murderous determination of these rebel Democrats to resist the enforcement of the laws, that, upon the report of the Federal officer commanding the district, Gov. BULLOCK urged the Legislature to call upon the President for the intervention of the Federal authority. The message and its recommendations were promptly smothered by the rebel majority in the Legislature, and so the Blair Democracy have full sway in Georgia to-day upon their platform of rebellion and murder.

Can any honest Pennsylvanian, no matter what his political associations, uphold such a state of things, or excuse in any way these outrages upon the law? If he can, let him harden his heart still more against the appeals of patriotism and humanity, for he only sees the beginning of the end which the infernal spirit of treason, animating the leaders of his party, is already preparing for his country.

—On our first page we print the particulars of the riot as received from rebel sources, together with a communication of Governor BULLOCK on the subject, to the Legislature of Georgia. The latter furnishes the true light on the affair, and effectually puts at rest the idea that the sheriff was animated by any laudable desire to preserve the peace, in leading the wicked and malicious attack on a political procession.

ALLEGED PROPERTY IN BONDS.

Bonds are divisible, for the purposes of this discussion, into two kinds—private and public. Private bonds are bonds given by one or more individuals to one or more of their fellows; to secure the payment of debts, on terms agreed upon and recited; public bonds are bonds issued by national, State or municipal authorities, or by corporations created by Congressional or legislative enactments. Are either of these kinds of bonds property in such sense as to render the sums of money specified in them liable to taxation? This inquiry does not refer to the justice or expediency of taxing the income derived from interest on either of these sorts of bonds; which is a point to be considered afterwards.

1. Let us consider whether private bonds are property, fairly liable to taxation.

JOHN DOE is the owner of a farm, which he holds for sale, price ten thousand dollars. RICHARD ROE wants this farm, has not ready money to give for it, but offers to pay the price demanded in five equal annual installments, with interest, secured by bond and mortgage. To this proposition JOHN DOE consents, and forthwith makes and delivers a deed in fee simple, taking a bond and mortgage as security. Did this transfer of property, on credit, really duplicate the property itself? By the drawing of those legal papers were ten ten thousand dollars' worth of property transmuted into twenty thousand dollars' worth? All Democrats say yes; all men of business sense say, no.

The farm exists precisely as it did before; only the ownership of it is changed. Before the purchase and sale JOHN DOE paid the taxes on it; thence forward RICHARD ROE has to assume that burden. In other words, the property itself is liable to taxation; but not the evidences of debt growing out of the transfer of the property. To tax both the farm and the bond, is simply to tax the same property twice; and this fact is so palpable that everybody but idiots and Democratic orators perceives it at a glance.

Nor is the case essentially altered where a loan is made and a bond or note taken as security. The property consists of the money which is the matter of negotiation. It belonged to JOHN DOE, and, by agreement, passed into the ownership of RICHARD ROE, DOE executing a written obligation binding him to repay it, with interest. This obligation, whether note or bond, is not property, in such sense as to be liable to taxation. It is simply evidence of property which DOE had, but made over to ROE, and which ROE engages to return.

To tax the capital or property represented in evidences of indebtedness, would be wrong, as stated above, because, identically the same property would be taxed twice; and it would be inexpedient, because no sensible man would sell on credit, in that case, unless he was allowed, either in larger price or higher rate of interest, indemnity for the taxes he would be compelled to pay. Taxing credits, as capital, would necessarily make credits so costly that poor men, or men in even moderate circumstances, could not make them available.

2. Public bonds involve all the principles, above specified, and more.

Take bonds issued by railway corporations to begin with. A railway company issues proposals for a loan of one million of dollars, and gets it, giving its mortgage bonds as security. The takers of the loan had the one million dollars in cash, which is property, and made it over to the Company. What becomes of this money? It goes to pay for the right of way, or road bed, or superstructure, or rolling stock, or depots. Here it is liable to taxation, and is taxed much higher than the same amount of money invested in farming lands. Not satisfied with this, the Democrats propose to tax the same property over again by assuming that while the money actually went into the railway or its appurtenances it exists just as absolutely in the bonds given to secure its ultimate reimbursement. This is either the stolidest of ignorance or the most flagrant scoundrelism. Possibly, it is a cross between the two.

Now, consider the case of bonds issued by act of Congress. The Government had urgent need of money, need so urgent as not to be met through the ordinary sources of revenue. It must borrow. What does this process signify? Just this, that money, which is property, must pass from the coffers of the individual owners thereof into the National Treasury. To talk of this money or property being in two places at one and the same time, is to talk nonsense. It cannot be in the hands of the Government and also in the hands of the individual lenders. When the individuals paid over the money, they parted with the property, the ownership thereof resting in the Government. What the individuals got were evidences of indebtedness; that is, a certificate that they had parted with definite portions of their property, the Government had received it and was answerable for its return at a date fixed and on conditions mutually agreed upon.

But property belonging to government, no matter how acquired, is not liable to taxation, and for manifest reasons. The object of taxation is to raise money for public purposes. Taxing government property cannot add to the resources of the Treasury, but must diminish those resources, so much as the fees of the assessors and collectors may be.

For government to tax the capital invested in its securities, would be inevitably to raise the rate of interest to its own disadvantage; unless it should be prepared to resort to forced loans, after the manner of the Chinese and Mexicans; that is, demanding from particular persons specific sums of money, under penalty of imprisonment or death. In this direction, and no other, the present Democratic policy runs. For no man, having capital, would lend it to the government, at six per cent. interest, with the understanding that it would be taxed six per cent. or even four.

3. Doubtless income derived from money at interest is as properly a subject of taxation as income derived from any other source. But, then, the taxation should be reasonable; not, as in Pennsylvania, taking all the interest and more too, provided a man conscientiously makes his return to the assessor. Such taxation virtually takes the whole sum invested, and clutches at whatever a man has besides. It is not taxation, in any proper sense of that term, but bald and infamous confiscation.

Income from National, State, municipal and corporate securities is taxable for government purposes, just as income from farming, manufacturing, merchandizing, or any other employment, is taxable. It is not only taxable, but is actually taxed, and for National, State, County and all other purposes. Democratic orators and newspapers constantly assert the contrary. Some of them may be so ignorant as to believe what they affirm on this head. If so, their wiser associates ought to teach them better. As no Democratic efforts are made for their instruction, and as no other Democratic inculcations are heard or printed, we infer that the settled purpose on that side is to create a popular belief in an unadulterated falsehood.

We have carefully listened to Democratic discussions on these matters. Every Democratic speaker we have heard has to tally disregarded all the obvious facts belonging to this subject, all the approved principles of Finance and of Taxation as accepted by enlightened governments and discerning men of business and has appealed to the basest passions of the worst portions of the community, and to nothing else.

TWO CITIES, AND THEIR INFLUENCE.

From an interesting and instructive article in Lippincott's Magazine, we gather some deductions which are not without an important bearing upon current politics.

1st. Applying the same ratio of increase in the total population of Pennsylvania, since 1860, which was manifested in the census returns for the Commonwealth from 1820 to that date, and we should have in 1868 a grand total of 3,659,259 for our present numeration.

2d. Taking the average ratio, from 1790 to 1860, of the votes cast to the whole population, the per centage has been comparatively stationary at 16 6-10 per cent. In the Presidential years of 1856 and 1860, this per centage rose to 17 7-10 and 17 3-10 respectively, the Governor's vote of 1860 being taken as the better basis, since peculiar causes in that year operated to diminish very generally the aggregate vote of one leading party for the Presidency.

3d. Applying the average ratio of 17 5-10 per cent. to the estimated population of the State at this date, and it will give us a total vote in October or November, probably both, of at least 640,000.

4th. Applying in Philadelphia the ratio which has been averaged for the ten years from 1857 to 1868, both inclusive, for the annual increase in the number of assessments, and the result for 1868 would be about 141,000. The actual vote of '64 and '66 bore a ratio of 85 and 82 per cent. respectively to the assessments of the year, but averaged only 70 for the whole decade. Estimated for this year at 80 per cent. we are led to expect a total of not less than 112,000 votes for Philadelphia next month. If any disturbing element impairs the ratio there, it will be felt by one only of the great parties.

5th. While the assessments, in the nature of things, include in this State many names not of legal voters in the precinct, yet the deductions drawn from a comparison of these lists with the actual votes for a series of years are found to be so uniform as to command confidence. In the city of New York, where the registrations theoretically state the names of legal voters only, the average of the vote to the registration for the seven years from 1860 to 1867 gives a per centage of only seventy-two for the whole period; but for the years 1860, 1864, 1866 and 1867, the average was eighty-five. Applying the rates of 1867 to the estimated registration for the year, 130,000, and the vote of that city in November would be 123,500.

6th. Our friends in New York say that they can give, and intend to give, 40,000 votes. In that event, the Democratic majority should not exceed 43,500, or say 45,000 in any event, which the Union vote in the rest of the State would easily overcome.

7th. Friends of the Union in Philadelphia claim at least 3,000 majority at the October election, to be considerably increased the month after. They should be prepared, however, for a large increase in the aggregate vote, as above anticipated. These figures also admonish our friends, in every part of the Commonwealth, that the total vote of '68 may be some 40,000 more than ever before cast by our people, and to spare no efforts in assuring themselves that a just proportion of the increase shall be represented in our triumphant ballots for HARTRANFT and CAMPBELL. With a certainty upon these points, we may rely upon the subsequent electoral vote for GRANT and COLFAX.

8th. The result may show that this battle, as well for the Union as for these States, has really been decided by the votes of the two leading cities. The rural districts are pretty sure to take care of themselves and of the righteous cause: let the Union men of Philadelphia and New York do all their duty also, and there need be no apprehensions for the result.

SAM. CARY'S twin-brother spoke at Reading last week, to the workingmen of that city. To be sure, BRICK POMEROY hasn't the same family name and seems to be less in favor with the Democratic editors there, for none of them print his speech or even allude to him in their columns, but the family resemblance to the twin CARY was so marked as to be conclusive. Any one who saw the Cincinnati working-man here will swear to the relationship, after reading the following sketch of BRICK, as given by the Reading Dispatch:

"The 'hard working-man' was dressed in the height of fashion—light pants, pigeon tail coat, low vest, silk hat, patent leathers (all of the finest manufacture and imported from France, to his order,) two diamond rings on each hand, a huge diamond bosom pin, heavy gold watch and massive diamond set gold fob chain."

THE GENERAL RESULT.

The New York Sun (Independent) thus speaks of the state of the political betting market:

"Immediately after his nomination the betting was two on Grant to one on Seymour. Then it changed to 120 on Grant to 80 on Seymour, and this is the best show Seymour has ever had. Since then his stock has gone back dreadfully in the betting market, till now the quotations among betting men are three on Grant to one on Seymour."

GEO. WILKES, in his Spirit of the Times, makes a fair proposition, as follows:

"We will name thirty-three States, and bet a thousand dollars on each, in favor of Grant against Seymour, and then bet twenty thousand dollars that we will be winner on the wager."

The annexed estimate of the general result is so nearly a fair one, that it certainly concedes to the opposition quite as much as they are likely to get. We find it in one of our exchanges:

"As the States of Virginia, 10; Mississippi, 7; and Texas, 6; total, 23; will not vote, or be counted, the total electoral vote will be 294. Necessary to a choice 148. Of these there will be:

Sound Doctrine.

A Democratic paper in Talladega, Ala., begins an article by saying: "Personal and political liberty are both necessary to develop the highest style of man." The article continues: "Those who would elevate the negro from his proper level are but a few steps, if any, in advance of him."

"It is hard to convey to others," said the old preacher, "ideas which we ourselves are not possessed of, for in so doing we are apt to communicate opinions which it is very difficult to eradicate from them."—Harper's Weekly.

Like Likes Like.

The New York World lately called General Grant, "Grant, the Great American Barkis, or dumb-waiter," and in the same issue alluded to General Lee as, "this grand old soldier." The next day it remarked that "the Democratic speakers treat General Grant with marked courtesy and forbearance." Considering that the "Great American Barkis" forced "this grand old soldier" to surrender, and brought the rebellion to an end, it is very generous in the Democratic speakers to treat him with forbearance.—Harper's Weekly.

The President's Preference.

When General Grant was lately in Chicago, he was asked by a friend whether Johnson was for him or for Seymour. Grant smiled and replied: "Well, I reckon that when he thinks of Seymour he's for me, and when he thinks of me he's for Seymour.

DR. SARGENT'S BACKACHE PILLS

Are the most efficient and most popular Diuretic medicine known, removing at once any obstruction of the Kidneys, subduing Inflamation and strengthening the Urinary Organs.

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Have been in use 35 years, and are daily performing wonderful cures. In many instances where patients were unable to walk upright or to rise without assistance, they have been relieved by a single dose.

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Cure all diseases of the Urinary Organs, the symptoms of which are weakness and pain in the back and loins, pains in the joints, difficulty in voiding the urine, general debility, &c.

THE KIDNEYS, BLADDER, &C.,

Are those organs through which most of the waste or worn out particles of the body passes; these worn out and dead particles are poisonous, consequently when these organs are diseased the whole system becomes deranged, and if not relieved at once the result may be fatal.

This much esteemed and most efficient medicine is the only diuretic that is put up in the shape of Pills, and is much more easily taken than the ordinary diuretic draughts, the Pills being sugar coated

HAS SUMMER ENFEEBLED YOU?

Nine out of every ten to whom this question is addressed, if they answer it candidly, will answer it in the affirmative. Some may reply to it from a sick bed; others, of a stronger constitution and greater powers of endurance, may only experience a slight lassitude as the consequence of the torrid season. But some portion of the vitality of all human beings oozes out of them under the pressure of great and continuous heat, and the sooner the loss is completely repaired, the less susceptible will the system be to the unhealthy influence of the Fall malaria.

The most genial and wholesome tonic that has ever been offered to man—as a means of recruiting his exhausted strength, and fortifying him against the attacks of disease—is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Taken at this season it is a perfect safeguard against intermittent fever, bilious affections, and all the epidemics which follow close upon the expiration of the Summer. It is an invigorant and alterative without any of the drawbacks which attach to mere stimulants, and is the only preparation of the kind which a conscientious physician would feel inclined to prescribe for ladies in delicate health. Nothing can be more pure, more harmless, more certain to restore the vigor of the system permanently and thoroughly, without exciting the pulse or the brain.

DISEASED LUNGS.

There is no doubt whatever that diseases of the lungs, or ulcers of whatever sort, on any of the internal organs may be and are frequently cured, and a complete condition of health established. If the elaborative functions, of which the stomach is the primary and most important one, are restored to a condition to do the repairing of the human system, ulcers or sores, whether upon the lungs, the liver, the kidneys or the bowels, or upon the legs, as is frequently the case, can be made to heal, and a complete standard of health re-established.

We have frequently seen these results from the use of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a pleasant and agreeable medicine, which will ripen up and carry out the animal economy all effete and used up material. Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is enriched by some of the most valuable plants and herbs known to be useful and curative for all deteriorated states of the human blood, and whilst it adds to its plasma, it at the same time stimulates, gently but effectively, the skin, the kidneys, the liver and the glandular system to sufficient action to enable the body to take on healthful action and eradicate the disease. The sick and afflicted should bear in mind the virtues of this great medicine, and if those who are sufficiently alive to the importance of health, will resort to it in the beginning of a cough or cold, there would be no falling into declines and rapid consumption, so hopelessly incurable, and so mostly fatal. Let any one afflicted with any pulmonary disease try but one bottle, and they will be convinced of the value of Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure. Sold by the gross, dozen or single bottle, at Dr. KEYSER'S Great Medicine Store, 140 Wood St.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, September, 22, 1868.

On the report that the Government was a seller of its surplus gold yesterday, and to-day the market declined from 144¾ to 142⅝; closing weak. The foreign bankers have been free shippers of bonds, and are pressing their exchange on the market, and likewise their gold and the proceeds of the sales. The prospect of a Republican victory in October and November next furnishes additional reasons for gold to be lower, although our imports amount over five million dollars in gold, whilst our exports only amount to about three millions in currency. It thus happens that at the export season the market is bare of prime commercial bills, and who knows how soon we will have to resort to specie exports. The amount of coin held by the banks is now quite small—less than fourteen millions—with a month and one-third before the Government can disburse any for interest due. All this is lost sight of, in the eagerness to see gold down and anticipate the effect of the November election.

The government bond market is very firm, not from any demand from inventors, but from speculators who have sold short in anticipation of a close market. The decline in gold will certainly influence the price of government bonds of the old issues, the interest of which is sustaining November 1st.

Stocks are dull and lower; New York Central has declined from 131¾ to 127½; Fort Wayne from 110½ to 109½; Pittsburgh from 88¾ to 87½; Erie from 49 to 47½; North Western from 91⅞ to 86. Express shares are steady and firm. Erie shares are strong, and a large short interest exists in these shares. Ohio and Mississippi is strong, and a rise is confidently expected, although the stock is less, not quite so firm as last week.

Money is very abundant, but business is not as active as is desired.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz: Gold, 142⅞; Eighty-one's, 114⅜; Five Twenties, 1862, 115⅝; do, 1864, 110⅛; do, 1865, 111⅛; do, 1865, new, 109; do, 1867, 109¼; do, 1868; 109⅜; Ten Forties, 104⅞; Railroads—Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 87½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 109½; Chicago & Rock Island, 102¾; Chicago & North Western, 89⅞; do Preferred, 89¼; Michigan Southern, 84½; Reading, 92¾; Erie, 47½; New York Central, 127½; Ohio & Mississippi Certificates, 28⅝; Western Union Telegraph Co., 34⅝; Adams Express Co., 51; Merchants Union, 24. Mining shares—Gregory, 4,35; Corydon, 12; Quartz Hill, 1,00; Smith & Parmalee, 4,95; Quicksilver, 22¼.

—The New York Commercial Advertiser says, concerning the movements of grain: "The amount of new grain sent to the seaboard is much below that forwarded at the same period of 1867. The receipts of flour at New York, from August 1 to September 12, were 57,195 barrels below those for the same period of last year, while the arrivals of wheat and corn were 1,150,000 bushels below those of 1867, as will be seen from the following comparison:

RECEIPTS OF FLOUR AND GRAIN AT NEW YORK FROM AUG. 1 TO SEPT. 12.

	1868.	1867.	Dec.
Flour.....	307,515	364,710	57,195
Wheat	359,210	1,066,135	706,925
Corn 2,856,265		3,302,175	445,910

"The result of this decrease of receipts is that we had a stock of grain at New York on the 19th inst. of only 1,601,226 bushels, against 2,794,844 bushels at the same date of last year. This condition of grain stocks at the seaboard, and the prospect of considerable shipments of breadstuffs to Europe, indicate that we have yet to buy a large amount of grain from the west.

"The west is full of grain, waiting for eastern buyers. From the 1st of August to the 12th of September, the arrivals of all kinds of grain at the five lake ports, aggregatidg 20,148,253 bushels, against 16,-618,639 bushels at the same period of last year.

RECEIPTS OF FLOUR AND GRAIN AT THE LAKE PORTS FROM AUG. 1 TO SEPT. 12.

	1868.	1867.	Inc.
Flour..... ..	674,223	575,945	98,283
All grain...20,148,253		16,618,639	3,529,614

"It is thus apparent that grain is accumulating in large amounts at the lake ports, to be moved east as soon as western holders and eastern buyers can agree upon terms. The purchase of the grain now held on the lake has been affected by the withdrawal of western deposits from New York; when it is forwarded east the movement must be effected by eastern means, and then will come a fresh demand from the grain trade, which can not but tell very directly upon the money market."

CINCINNATI, September 22.—Beef cattle 50c per cental lower, large supply and dull market.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, September 22, 1868.

The inclement condition of the weather had a tendency to retard business to-day which at best has been unusually dull for some days past. There is no improvement to note in the tone of the general market, so far as regards either demand or prices, and while the volume of business seems to be comparatively light, prices have undergone no important changes.

BUTTER—Is steady with a supply fully up to the demand, and prices are unchanged at 36 to 40 cts.

EGGS—Steady but unchanged, at 23c for fresh packed.

HAY—Baled is selling on wharf at $25 to $30, as to quality, and wagon Hay may be quoted at $30 to $36.

CHEESE—Unchanged at 15 to 16 for Western Reserve and Hamburg; 17 to 18c for Factory and Goshen; and 19 to 20c for Sweitzer.

APPLES—In fair supply but with a steady demand, prices are maintained, ranging from $3 to $4 per bbl.

POTATOES—Dull at $1,10 to $1,12 per bushel, and $3,20 to $3,25 per bbl. Sales of Sweets at $6,00 to $6,50 per bbl.

GRAIN—Wheat is dull and with a drooping tendency; sale of 1 car prime Red, in elevator, at $2,10. Oats steady but unchanged at 65 to 66c, on track, and 68 to 70c, for small lots in store. Corn is less active but unchanged; quoted at $1,14 to $1,15 for mixed, and $1,16 to $1,17 for prime Yellow. Rye is in demand, with sales at $1,40 to $1,45. Barley is in demand, and limited in supply; we continue to quote at $1,90 to $2.

SEEDS—The arrivals of Timothy Seed from Chicago have been liberal for some days, and the market is now well supplied; prices, however, remain unchanged at $3,50 to $3,75. Flaxseed is scarce and in demand at $2,45 to $2,50. Cloverseed is entirely nominal.

LARD OIL—Is quiet and unchanged at $1,20 for No. 2, and $1,50 for No. 1.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet and unhanged at 14 cts, for Shoulders; 16½ for Ribbed and 18 to 18¼ for Clear Sides, and 21 to 21¾ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is unchanged at 20 in tierces, and 22 in kegs. Mess Pork, $30,50 to $31.

ONIONS—Sales in a regular way at $3,75 to $4 per bbl.

MILL FEED—Is dull but unchanged. The mills continue to quote at $1,10 for Bran; $1,30 for Shipstuffs, and $2 for Middlings.

FLOUR—Is dull and unchanged. Spring Wheat brands, $9 to $9,50 for fair to medium, and $9,75 to $10 for choice. The mills continue to quote at $10,50 for Extra Family, in barrels, and $10,20, in sacks, and Double Extra at $11, in barrels, and $10,70, in sacks. Rye Flour, $8,75.

WHISKY—Is quiet but steady and unchanged; we continue to quote common rectified per gallon $1,25; half rye and half corn per gallon $1,75; old Monongahela rye, two years old, per gallon $2,25; old Monongahela rye, three years old, per gallon, $3,50; highwines per gallon $1,35.

CRANBERRIES—Sales of eastern at $20 to $24.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, September 22, 1868.

CRUDE.

The Crude market was firm and a little excited, notwithstanding their was not a single sale reported. We are cognizant of an offer to buy September or October at 11½ without meeting with any response from sellers; indeed, so far as we could learn thero was not a single offer to sell holders, seemingly, preferring to hold off in anticipation of still better figures. Oil City telegrams report the market firmer; held at $4,25 to $4,30, with no buyers.

REFINED.

The market for Refined continues firm and somewhat excited, particularly for early deliveries, and, compared with yesterday, prices have still further advanced. Sale of 500 bbls for September at 31½c, and 1,500 each for September, October and November at 31c. It was reported that there had been a sale of 3,000 bbls spot oil, in Philadelphia, at 32c; per contrary, we heard it reported that some ten thousand barrels had been offered at 31½c, without finding buyers. The last telegram reported 31¾c, offering. December is dull and nominal at 29½ to 30c.

HOPS.

The Hop Regions of Wisconsin—Hop Pickers and Who They Are.

A correspondent of the Chicago Republican, writing from Baraboo, Wisconsin describes the great hop growing region of Sauk county. We make a few extracts:

For many years the only hop-yard in thi county was one of three or four acres, in the Village of Lyons. In 1861-62 the people hereabouts began to awaken to a knowledge of the enormous profits to be derived from that branch of agriculture, and, with a rapidity almost beyond comprehension, the farms and gardens of a hundred townships have, since that time, been converted into hop yards.

In Sauk, Juneau, and Columbia counties, the number of acres to be harvested this season exceeds that of any previous year by more than one hundred per cent.

"All the world and his wife"—aye, and his wife's "relations," and his children, and grand children, too, are hop pickers here. It is a matter of economy, of absolute necessity. A competent nurse, employed at from $2 to $3 per diem, will take charge of a half dozen babies-in-arms, and save a corresponding number of hands to to the hop growers. That the crop be promptly gathered concerns not merely the producer and the dealer, but every citizen to an equal extent. The gold of the banker; the goods and exchange of the merchant; the lands and homestead of the speculator; the pauper's crust, and the poor laborer's daily bread, hang on the vine-circled poles; and all these are equally periled by delay.

Yet not alone is it this necessity which attracts the women so universally to the hop yards. A very large share of these go for the wages. A considerable number are enticed by the certainty of enjoying a season of roistering fun, with plenty of company. But, to complete the list, the wives and daughters of the wealthy go hop picking, as they allege, solely for "the benefit of their health." The expression has become a current joke among the pickers generally. With a praiseworthy spirit of martyrdom do these hopeful seekers for health pursue their object. Cold, foggy mornings, and dismal rainy days, damp not their courage, nor shake their resolution. Toothache, neuralgia, rheumatism cast not a shadow o'er their confidence. Nothing short of a sudden reduction of the wages paid, strange as it may appear, can effect that object.

Yet all the resident pickers, old and young, form but an insignificant fraction of the force required to gather the harvest. The entire population of this county town, numbering some three or four thousand, are employed within a radius of one and a half or two miles from their homes. Several hundred are engaged in the limits of the town itself.

Last year, as was estimated from the most reliable sources, 40,000 people—the greater number women—came into Sauk county alone, during the hop picking season. At this time, the present season being nearly twice as large as the last, it is generally conceded that there can be but few less than 75,000 strangers in this one county, and from 140,000 to 150,000 in all the hop region.

The vast army of harvesters come together from every point, near or remote in the State, and from hundreds of places in Northern Illinois. A very large majority of those who come only from adjacent counties, within a range of, say, fifty miles in either direction, have been engaged by contract, by some of the most extensive growers, since mid-summer, or earlier, and many since the picking of last year. There were agents who made a point to travel through remote counties, east and south, and secure hands in this way, but they soon found that the advantage of this course promised to be mainly found on the side of the pickers, in view of a decline in wages at harvest time, and they accordingly closed the contract business. Thirty cents per box was at that time offered, then forty cents, and many thousands would have been secured at that price, but that they indignantly refused these terms, expecting fifty or sixty cents, and willing to work for no less than the former at any time. Those who were foolish enough to engage for less, have disregarded their contracts since, and get full pay. The hop-growers are completely at their mercy.

Fully one-half of the harvest is ripened and ready for the box at one and the same time. It must be gathered as promptly as the greatest number of hands who can work in the yard and be accommodated in the house can do the work. Delay is perilous; lice, rust and mildew may begin their ravages at any moment and destroy thousands of capital, while hundreds only can be secured.

The Singular Phenomenon of the Eruption.

During the whole of July Mount Vesuvius has been in a state of greater or less eruption, and has exhibited a most magnificent spectacle. For four months within a few days, it has been continuously pouring forth lava in spite of the predictians of the learned that the end was drawing near; so that our professors are under the necessity of distinguishing three phases of the eruption—the first extending from the night of the 12th or 13th of November to the 15th of January; the second from the 15th of January to the 11th of February, during which interval it exhibited great varieties with less activity; the third from the 11th of February to the present time, a period of diminution according to Palmiera, though appearances and daily reports are such as to refute the hypothesis. About the beginning of this latter period little lava flowed, and the impression was that the eruption was about over; but on the 12th greater activity, which continued to the 15th of February, was observed; the detonations were loud, generally in the morning and evening; some stones were thrown out, and then comparative silence ensued. During these two or three days several shocks of earthquake were registered, and the apparatus of variation was disturbed. A few sublimates were collected on the summit, but not sufficient to mark the end of the eruption. On the 17th yet greater activity was perceptible, and its periodicity was confirmed; twice a day Vesuvins put forth all its energies, interesting equally the scientific and the curious. The guides of Vesuvius who reside in Resina say that in their town great shocks were felt, sufficient to make their doors and windows tremble. Columns of stones, they add, were shot into the air at the height of three hundred metres, something little short of nine hundred feet. The lava, too progressed considerably, forming at the foot of the cone five different streams, which poured over like cascades. On the 18th the great cone began again to roar with considerable violence, and two shocks of earthquake were felt distinctly in Resina, the very summit of the cone fell in, forming by the obstruction of the material three creaters, which threw out large quantities of stone, and offered, as it were a magnificent display of fire-works. The entire cone trembled, too, as if shaken by an earthquake, for four or five seconds, while later in the day the lava forced an opening in the direction of the Piano delle Ginistere, and flowed onward in a stream of full ten metres in width. From this time to the end of the month the mountain has continued to thunder, and to throw out masses of red-hot lava, which, dividing into many streams, presents at a great distance a spectacle of great beauty. Frequent, though slight, shocks have been felt at Resina, and, indeed, other places in the immediate neighborhood, but they create no alarm, as the people are so accustomed to their return. On the night, however, of the 27th, there was one unusually strong. It seems now to be confirmed that the volcano acts under lunar influence. In truth, the periods of its greatest eruption get every day about half an hour later, coinciding with the evolutions of the planet. I have only to note the nature of the materials which have been thrown out during the third phase. The ashes and sublimates have been in small quantities, which, according to Palmiera's own assertion on several occasions, indicate that the eruption is not near its termination. The sublimates which have appeared, however, on the smoke holes, have been chloride of copper and lead, while the absence of chloride of iron has been noted as remarkable, although on the top of the cone it has been united with "oligisto" iron. The concourse of visitors is greater than ever.

Soldiers' Pay and Bounty.

As an evidence of the immense disbursements of the Government during the past fiscal year, occasioned by the war, and partially accounting for the increase in the public debt, as per last statement, a few figures have been obtained from the records of the Treasury Department. It is ascertained that the pay and bounty division of the Second Auditor's office, during the past fiscal year, adjudicated 102,000 claims of deceased and discharged soldiers, involving an amount of $19,500,000. The number of claims of the same class rejected—during the same time was 41,000, making a total of 293,000 claims disposed of, carrying money ranging in sums from $25 to $500 into 162,000 families—mostly the poor. More than 500,000 letters were written, in addition to the numerous printed circulars and blanks mailed from the office. No frauds were committed, and the mistakes will not amount to one-tenth of one per cent. of the amount collected. Of the 900,000 claims filed in the Department since the war began, 80,000 remain yet to be disposed of. These are mostly complicated cases, difficult of settlement, and many of which have been suspended for additional evidence. On the 1st of September there were twenty-six thousand additional bounty claims on file.

An attempt was recently made at Chalons to poison Marshal Bazaine and a number of other prominent French Generals. An investigation led to such startling results that the whole force hitherto employed at the staff kitchen was replaced by other men, and several of the military cooks are still in custody. Bazaine is extremely unpopular among his brother officers. When blunt old general Husson recently entered the staff-tent where Marshal Bazaine and half a dozen Generals were assembled, the veteran exclaimed, "How do you, Generals?" shook hands with all the Generals, and took no notice of Bazaine. The soldiers now shout, whenever Bazaine makes his appearance, "How do you, Generals?"

To illustrate the wonderful rise in the value of property, and the great changes made in New York in a short time, Signor Blitz relates that fifteen years ago he hired a house and seven acres of ground where Fifty-third street now is, at $200 per annum. The entire property was offered in fee to him for $5,000, an offer which he rejected. Had he accepted it, his $5,000 would have grown, by this time, into half a million or more of dollars.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE APPETITE FOR

Tobacco Destroyed!

Leave off Chewing and Smoking the Poisonous Weed, Tobacco.

One box of ORTON'S PREPARATION IS WARRANTED to destroy the appetite for tobacco in any person, no matter how strong the habit may be. IF IT FAILS IN ANY CASE THE MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED. It is almost impossible to break off from the use of tobacco by the mere exercise of the will. Something is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit so firmly rooted; with the help of the preparation there is not the least trouble. Hundreds have used it who are willing to bear witness to the fact that ORTON'S PREPARATION completely destroys the appetite for tobacco and leaves the person as free from any desire for it as before he commenced its use. It is perfectly safe and harmless in all cases. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by tobocco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing the poison of tobacco from the system, and thus allaying the unnatural cravings of tobacco.

NO MORE HANKERING FOR TOBACCO AFTER USING ORTON'S PREPARATION! RECOLLECT IT IS WARRANTED. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession:

[From W. P. Heald, Esq., Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., April 24, 1868.

I hereby certify that I have used tobacco for thirty years past, and for the last fifteen years I have used two pounds per month. I have made attempts to leave off at different times. I have left off one year at a time, but always continued to hanker for it until I used Orton's Preparation, which has completely cured me of the appetite for tobacco. I would recommend all who are affected with this terrible habit to try the preparation, which will certainly cure it if the directions are followed.

W. P. HEALD.

[From E. W. Adkins, Knoxville, Tenn.]

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., August 5, 1867.

This is to certify that I had used tobacco to such an extent that my health had become greatly impaired, and my whole system deranged and broken down. In June, 1867, I purchased one box of Orton's Preparation, and after using it I found that I was completely cured. I have not had any hankering or desire for tobacco since using the preparation. I believe it to be all that it is recommended, and I would advise all who wish to quit the use of tobacco to try one box of Orton's Preparation.

E. W. ADKINS.

[From John Morrill, Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., March 24, 1868.

This is to certify that I have used tobacco for eighteen years; have tried many times to leave off, but have suffered so much from a dizziness in my head, and gnawing at my stomach, that I have soon given up the trial. A short time since a friend induced me to try Orton's Preparation (sold by you.) I have done so, and am completely cured. I did not in the least hanker after tobacco, either to smoke or chew, after I began to use the Preparation.

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.

700 MILES

OF THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. 160 miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is an absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, carshops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through traffic that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

The Union Pacific Bonds run thirty years, are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office, in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. The price is 102, and at the present rate of gold, they pay a liberal income on their cost.

The Company believe that these Bonds, at the present rate, are the cheapest in the market, and reserve the right to advance the price at any time.

Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12¼M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Rooms of the Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth street.

The Procession To-Night.—On our fifth page this morning we publish the names of the aids to the officers having charge of the procession to-night and to-morrow, together with the routes of procession. It will prove of general interest to all readers.

All are invited to turn out to-night.

It is estimated that $8,000 will complete the Cathedral tower from the point it has attained.

The Seventh and Eighth Wards Grant and Colfax Club will find a notice of interest on the fifth page of this paper.

The Democrats have as yet found no place to put their pole, and it continues to grace the gutter of Fifth street.

This day and the night following will be of equal length. After this the nights will be lengthening and the days shortening.

Petty Theft.—The chap in the Pittsburgh post-office who stole a bit of wedding cake on Saturday night has not been prosecuted.

Company "A," Grant Hussars, are requested to meet on Liberty street in front of Hare's at 6½ o'clock this evening, fully equipped for parade.

The National Guard, Capt. Schoonmaker, are requested to assemble this evening at half past six o'clock precisely, on Pitt street, corner of Liberty.

Republicans come out in your might to-night.

I. O. of O. F.—McFarl and Lodge, No. 30, will attend in a body the funeral of Past Grand, F. W. Cluley this afternoon. Members of other lodgers are respectfully invited to attend.

Grant Hussars.—Company "A," Captain D. Dunseath, will form into line to-night on Liberty street, opposite Hare's Hotel, at half-past six o'clock sharp, fully equipped. Let there be no laggards.

Improvements.—There has been more improvement in the Southside boroughs during the past year than there was for the five preceding years. A larger number and better class of buildings have been erected, and considerably more grading and paving done.

Wilkins Hall, Fourth avenue, the elegant headquarters of the Second Ward Grant Club, will be open all day and night for the accommodation and reception of visitors. The Kittanning Grant Club has been assigned the Second ward as guests during their visit.

Cross Suits.—Ellen Carrol and Margaret Cunningham, whose names are familiar to the readers of police news, are spending their time in making informations against each other. They each made information against the other before the Mayor yesterday for surety of the peace.

Dull.—Police business in both cities and the surrounding boroughs is exceedingly dull at present. The minds of the people are so engrossed with politics that they have no time for litigation. The magistrates deplore this state of affairs, but expect a rich harvest after the election.

No loyal citizen will refuse to join the procession to-night.

Close the Stores.—We would respectfully suggest that the wholesale and retail stores of the city be closed at four o'clock this afternoon in order to give all fair chance for participating in the grand parade to-night. Most of the mills and workshops will quit work at the same hour.

Parade.—The Third ward, Allegheny, Grant and Colfax Club, about one hundred strong, and commanded by Capt. Gang, paraded the streets for drill, in the ward, last evening. They were uniformed with light drab caps and capes and equipped with torches, which made their appearance very creditable.

Assault and Battery.—Robt. Rankin made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging Ed. Snowden, N. Wishart, J. Hatfield and F. Smith with assault and battery. Rankin is employed on the steamer "Active" and the defendants are employés on the "Elisha Bennet." Warrants were issued for the arrest of the accused.

Fifth Ward, Allegheny.—All parties in this ward desiring to paticipate in the torchlight procession this evening are desired to report to the Marshal at the Grant and Colfax Headquarters, Beaver avenue, below Ohio avenue, promptly at six o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all Republican citizens of the ward to participate.

The Wharf.—Contractor Flynn has a large number of hands employed in grading the Monongahela wharf, and the work, although progressing comparatively slow, is being prosecuted as rapidly as the circumstances of the case will admit. The recent rise in the river not only damaged the work materially, but has caused considerable delay in the grading.

Every Republican is wanted in line to-night with torch in his hand.

Weather Prognostications.—"G. A." gives the following prognostications of the weather for the ensuing month: From September 16th, to October 15th, there will be twenty-one cloudy and variable days, seventeen of rain, eight sunshine days. There will be damp, rainy weather more than usual for October, and there will be an unusual number of frosts. The indications for the winter are that the weather will be generally cold.

Being Repaired.—Keeling's coal railway on Railroad street, East Birmingham, which for several years past has been out of use in consequence of a suit pending in court relative to the right of way, and had become very much out of repair. The suit having been decided in favor of Mr. Keeling, the road is being repaired and will soon be in operation again. It is one of the longest inclines in this vicinity, being over three miles in length.

Captured.—Officer McCready yesterday captured Sarah Mitchell, a colored woman, charged on oath of S. N. Hall with the larceny of a watch and chain valued at seventy dollars. She had a hearing before the Mayor, at which it was proven she had been seen with a watch answering the description of the one stolen, and that she offered to sell it for three dollars She was locked up for a further hearing this morning but will doubtless be committed to answer the charge at Court.

Let no one be a moment too late for the procession to-night. Let the forces rally promptly and the procession move sharp at the time appointed.

The Marching Phalanx of the old Sixth ward (now Seventh and Eighth) held a business meeting last evening, at which there was a large attendance. Considerable business relative to the grand procession to-night was transacted, after which a resolution of thanks to John W. Pittock, Esq., was passed for the very prompt and satisfactory manner in which he furnished the uniforms, torches, flags and decorations ordered by the Club. The old Sixth ward proposes turning out in all her strength to-night and making a display highly creditable to her long established loyalty and public spirit.

THE COURTS.

United States District Court.

[Before Judge McCandless.]

On the opening of the Court, the motion for a new trial in the case of the United States vs. the Vinnegar Manufactory et. al., of Arthur Ballou, was called up for argument. A. M. Brown, Esq., and Hon. P. C. Shannon, spoke in favor of the motion, and District Attorney Carnahan and General Collier in opposition thereto. The Court took possession of the papers, and will give a decision at a future day.

The bankruptcy list was then taken up. The case of De Pui & Nichols was continued for trial at Williamsport.

The case of John G. Simons vs. Mary Sands was taken up. This was an issue joined on allegations of acts of bankruptcy set forth in the petition of the creditor. Messrs. S. A. and W. S. Purviance appeared for petitioning creditors, and Messrs. Kirker, J. K. Kerr, R. B. Patterson and Gen. A. B. M'Calmont for defendant. The case is still on trial.

In the bankruptcy branch petitions for final discharge were filed by W. H. Wagstaff, Pittsburgh; Elijah F. Parker, Allegheny county; Wm. M. Hunter, Tidiute, Warren county.

A petition for adjudication was filed by E. J. Purple, Tioga county.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

[Before Judge Sterrett.]

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Matthew Keep, indicted for forcible entry and detainer, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and directed that the defendant pay one-half the costs, and the prosecution, Wm. Laughlin, the other half.

The next case called was that of the Commonwealth vs. Teddy McCarthy, indicted on oath of Daniel McMullen for felonious assault and battery. The offense alleged in the indictment was committed on the night of July 27th, 1867. The prosecutor was a Lieutenant on the police force of Mayor McCarthy, and at the time stated he went into Richter's beer saloon, on Penn street, to quell a disturbance. While in there he was struck on the head with a beer glass, alleged to have been in the hands of the defendant. The Commonwealth is represented by Messrs. Kirkpatrick and Linn, and the defense by Messrs. Swartzwelder and Moreland. Mr. Linn opened the case by briefly narrating the circumstances under which the offense was committed, and proceeded to call witnesses as follows:

Daniel McMullen, sworn—On or about the 27th of July, 1867, I was in the Fifth ward, in company with Edward Quinn. I was a Lieutenant of the police under Mayor McCarthy; I was posting the men on their beats; at about ten o'clock on the 27th of July I heard a noise in a saloon on Penn street. I went in and told Richter, the proprietor, he had better shut up his house for about twenty minutes; he said he would, and went out and put up the shutters. Teddy McCarthy then said he did not care a d—m for the Mayor or any of his policemen, and commenced shoving me around. I told him to be quiet, as I did not wish to have any trouble with him. He then wanted me to take a glass of beer; I refused and soen after he struck me on the head with a beer glass: I was rendered insensible for a time, and don't know how often I was struck after the first time. [Mr. McMullen here exhibited to the jury the scar on his head produced by the blow from the beer glass in the hands of McCarthy, showing a fracture of the skull.] I was confined to bed about six weeks after I was hurt, and was attended by Drs. Dickson, Hamilton, McCook and others. My limbs were paralyzed and I lost my speech for some time after I received the injuries, and, I believe from the effects of those injuries. The impediments in my speech at this time were produced by the blow on the head. McCarthy, after he struck me, ran across the street, into a drug store. I had no difficulty with him before this occurrence, but I arrested him about three weeks before. At the time of the difficulty on the night of the 27th of July I did not say or do anything out of the way to McCarthy before he struck me.

On cross-examination the witness said he did not recollect telling the Mayor that he did not know who struck him. In an examination before Judge Stowe, at the time of an application for a reduction of the bail, he did not say that he did not know who struck him. He did not know any one in the house but Teddy McCarthy. As he pulled his mace out Teddy struck him.

Drs. McCook and McDonald were called and testified as to the nature of the injuries inflicted upon McMullen, and his condition at that time and since. Dr. McCook pronounced the opinion that McMullen would never recover from the effects of the blow on his skull. In reply to a question by Mr. Swartzweider, as to whether an injury like that received by McMullen, would impair a man's memory. Dr. McCook stated that after the recovery of his thinking faculties, a man who had received such an injury would be able to remember everything distinctly up to the time at which the injury was inflicted; his mind would be confused as to events occurring subsequently. In this opinion Dr. McDonald concurred.

At three P. M. Court adjourned till ten A. M. to-day.

Advise your neighbors to turn out to-night in the procession.

Eleventh Ward Grant and Colfax Club.

The Club of the Eleventh ward held a meeting last evening at the School House, on Green street, Vice President Jas. Robb in the Chair.

The following persons were appointed as officers for the companies in the torchlight procession on Wednesday evening.

Company "A"—Capt., C. T. Ewing.
" " 1st Lieut., S. W. Hill.
" " 2d Lieut., B. F. Kennedy.
Company "B"—Capt., H. W. Oliver.
" " 1st Lieut., Henry Hoffer.
" " 2d Lieut., Jas. McClelland.

The following committees were appointed:

On Transportation—Messrs. A. G. McCandless, Wm. Mays, A. A. Moore, L. F. Duncan and Samuel Barckley.

On Disabled Soldiers—Messrs. James M. Sleeth, George W. Reed and Stewart Dalzell.

The Committee on Transportation request that all ladies and gentlemen desiring to ride in the procession on Thursday report to any of the gentlemen of said Committee before noon of Wednesday if possible.

Dr. A. G. McCandless was elected Chief Marshal of the Eleventh ward delegation for Thursday.

Hang out your flags and banners to-day.

Police Orders.

Mayor Blackmore has directed the entire police force (including substitutes) to meet at the Mayor's office on Wednesday evening, September 23d, at seven o'clock, to be on duty during the torchlight procession on that evening. The entire police force are also directed to report at the Mayor's office on Thursday morning, September 24th, at nine o'clock, a portion of whom will be detailed to form an escort to the Republican Mass Convention on that day, and the others to be stationed along the line of the procession.

Illuminate your residences to-night.

Contracts Awarded.—At a meeting of the Street Committee, held Monday evening, the following contracts were awarded: Grading Dinwiddie street, William Kating; Bluff street, John Magee; grading and paving Spring alley, C. Howard; Smallman alley, John Magee; paving Diamond alley with Nicolson pavement, from Wood street to the Diamond, was awarded to Allen & Dun at $2,68 per yard, with single floor. There were but two bids received, one being as stated and the other $2,75.

Large Republican Meeting at Blairsville Junction—Interesting Speeches.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Republicans of Westmoreland county was held at Blairsville Junction, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, on Saturday evening, the 19th inst. The meeting was organized by selecting the following named officers: President, Israel Gray; Vice President, Col. J. B. Ogden; Secretary, Thomas Estep. The first speaker introduced was H. H. McCormick, Esq., of the Pittsburgh bar, who addressed the meeting in a lengthy and forcible speech. Mr. McCormick argued the reconstruction and the bond question both elaborately, and proved that the policy proposed by the Democratic party would, if adopted and carried result in the disgrace and ruin of the nation.

At the conclusion of Mr. McCormick's address, the Chairman introduced John F. Wentling, Esq., of the Greensburg bar. Mr. Wentling reviewed the record of the Democratic party and exposed its hypocrisy and treachery in the past, and argued therefrom what a stupendous and fatal blunder it would be on the part of the American people to place the control of the Government once more in its hands. He reminded the Democrats of their habit, during the war, of howling at every measure adopted for the suppression of the rebellion as unconstitutional, and predicted that in a few years hence they would be as heartily ashamed of their conduct as were the Tories of the Revolution; Mr. Wentling concluded with an appeal to all present to turn out at the October election and vote to secure the State for Grant and Colfax and the return of Hon. John Covode to Congress. The meeting then adjourned with three cheers for the Republican ticket. The speakers were very handsomely entertained by Col. J. B. Ogden, the Vice President of the meeting.

Say by your appearance in procession to-night that Allegheny county will give ten thousand majority for Grant and Colfax.

Allegheny Bridge Navigation.

According to published call, a meeting of Lumber men, Steamboatmen Oil men and others interested in the navigation of the Allegheny river was held yesterday afternoon, at three o'clock, in the rooms of the Petroleum Association, Dalzells's building, corner Duquense Way and Irwin streets.

Capt. Geo. W. Cochran was called to the Chair, and Capt. J. T. Stockdale chosen Secretary.

The Chairman stated the object of the meeting to be, to take some action in regard to the obstruction of navigation on the river by the pier now being built in the channel at Brady's Bend.

It seems that a company has been incorporated to build a bridge across the river at the point named, and in the progress of the work a pier has been partially completed which, it is claimed, is a very great obstruction to the navigation of the stream. Considerable discussion took place in regard to the matter, participated in by a number of those conversant with the situation of the obstruction, all of whom agreed that if it be allowed to remain, navigation of the river must be suspended.

It was finally concluded to consult legal counsel in the matter, and for this purpose a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Frederick Fisher, Thomas Jackson and Captain Ferguson, was appointed and empowered to act in accordance with legal advice.

The meeting then adjourned to convene at the call of the committee.

Every Republican is wanted in the line of procession to-night.

MORTGAGES.

Same day five mortgages were filed.

What Ward will to-night earn the proud title of banner district?

Honor Where Honor is Due.

In our notice yesterday of the beautiful silk flag presented to the Eleventh Ward Grant Club, we failed to award the proper credit due Miss Lide C. Hays and the Misses Clara and Ada McCutcheon, through whose patriotic efforts and liberality the magnificent national emblem was purchased. The flag is of the very best quality of silk, of exquisite workmanship, and on its blue field has emblazoned bright gold stars. It cost in the neighborhood of one hundred and fifty dollars, and the Club, as well as all Republican voters of the ward, are duly proud and grateful. The young ladies have set a worthy example which we trust will be followed by those of other neighborhoods.

What Republican will not be in the ranks to-night?

Who Is He?

Mayor Drum yesterday received a telegraphic dispatch from Cleveland, which read as follows: "Has any reward been offered for the arrest of Harvey, a confidence man. He can be had." As neither the Mayor nor his officers knew anything about Harvey, or his operations, they were unable to give any information in regard to him—perhaps some of the victims in the confidence transactions, which have occurred hereabouts lately, might be able to say something regarding Harvey's case.

Meeting at New Texas.—The meeting at New Texas, Plum township, yesterday, was a complete success, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather. The farmers for miles around came in their wagons, and a large delegation from this city accompanied by a brass band were in attendance. The meeting was organized by calling Mr. W. A. Tomlinson to the chair, and appointidg a large number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. Gen. J. B. Sweitzer and other able speakers addressed the meeting, and notwithstanding the rain fell incessantly, the vast audience were enthusiastic and attentive.

Pittsburgh Boat Sunk.—The steamer "Silver Cloud" No 2, Capt. Jno. B. Conway, sank on the bar below the Belmont coal works Monday morning. She had just taken a coal barge in tow, and shortly after rounding out struck a rock, sinking in seven feet of water. Her cargo was principally pig iron. She was insured in the Commercial, Queen City, Crescent, America, and Ohio Valley Companies of Cincinnati.

The Demonstration.

The Republican demonstration which takes place in this city to-night and to-morrow bids fair to be a complete success, notwithstanding the unfavorable aspect of the weather. The call for campaign goods, such as caps, capes, belts, leggings, torches, flags, lanterns, &c., has exceeded the expectation of all the dealers, and had it not been for the shrewdness and foresight of one of them—Pittock, opposite the Postoffice—the supply would have been inadequate to meet the demand. To Pittock's enterprise we are therefore indebted, as it will enable many to make a fine display this evening and to-morrow, who would otherwise have been unable to do so. Notwithstanding the demand for all the above named campaign goods of all descriptions has been unprecedented, Pittock has been able to meet it. He has filled all his numerous orders with promptness and dispatch, and has still a supply of goods on hand for the accomodation of those who have been unable to obtain them from other sources. His goods are of the very best quality, and can be purchased at the most reasonable prices. Persons coming from the country who are in want of anything in that line should not fail to call at Pittock's early in order to have their orders filled promptly. His stock of flags is the most extensive brought to this city and comprises all sizes, from the regulation flag down to the smallest, and up to the largest garrison flags, ranging in quality from the most common material to the finest silk, so that the purchaser cannot fail to be suited in price, quality and quantity. His stock of badges is also very large, and includes all styles manufactured. Send in your orders for anything you want in the way of campaign goods, from a ten cent badge to a two hundred dollar flag, and Pittock will fill it on the most reasonable terms and with all possible dispatch. Remember the place to get campaign goods is John W. Pittock's, corner Fifth avenue and Smithfield street, opposite the Postoffice.

Let no Republican stay in doors to-night.

Amusements.

OHERA HOUSE.—The great spectacular drama of the "White Fawn," which had such an unprecedented run in all the Eastern cities, is now the attraction at the Opera House in this city. Its principal feature—like other spectacular drama, is the ballet, and the troupe now at the Opera House is a most excellent one. Morlacchi, the primo ballorino, is truly an artiste, and fully deserving of the world-wide reputation she enjoys. Her dancing is the poetry of motion, every movement is full of grace and skill; she glides over the stage so light and fairy like as to lead the observer to believe her a moving shadow. She has attained a position in her profession seldom reached by any one, and with all her fame, is as modest as she is brilliant. The lesser lights in the troupe are, many of them, fine artistes, and were highly applauded by the audience during the entertainment. The audience, notwithstanding the rain, was quite large, and from the manner in which they expressed their approval of the entertainment, it is quite evident that "spectacular" is not yet void of attraction in Pittsburgh.

Ladies' Furs.

We frequently hear the question asked, "How is it that ladies's furs are sold at less prices at the great and popular fur establishment of William Fleming, No. 139 Wood street, than at any other house in the city?" The great secret in the case is this, that the business is so systematized in all branches that in purchasing and selling Mr. Fleming has many decided advantages, so that he is enabled to sell goods at the lowest possible profit that business can be transacted upon—in fact, in many cases this extensive house is able to sell its goods to retail patrons at much less than smaller or old fogy houses have to pay for their stocks.

Having laid in the largest and finest assortment of furs ever brought to this city, Mr. Fleming is prepared to offer unprecedented bargains to his numerous patrons. Readers should by all means call and look through the immense stock before purchasing elsewhere. Great pleasure is taken in showing goods to all who call.

Republicans turn out to-night.

GEO. BEAVEN.

Tanner Clubs, and all who intend to participate in to-day's procession, will find it to their advantage to call at Pittock's this morning to complete their equipments in caps, capes, belts, legings, &c.

New Goods.—Mr. Henry Meyer, the well known and popular merchant tailor, No. 73 Smithfield street, has just received a fresh and finely assorted stock of cloths, cassimeres and vestings, suitable for fall and winter wear, which he is prepared to make up in the neatest and most fashionable styles at the most reasonable prices. Mr. Meyer enjoys high reputation in his line of business, and makes up garments in the very best style of art and workmanship. He is in every way worthy the confidence of our readers, and we bespeak for him a full share of public patronage.

Chapped Hands, face and all roughness of the skin, certainly cured by using the Juniper Tar Soap, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York. It surpasses all other remedies as it will prevent roughness of the skin if used during cold weather. It is easily applied, avoiding all the trouble of the greasy compounds now in use. It can be used by ladies with the most tender skin, without irritation or pain, making it soft and clear. Sold by the druggists generally. wT

Tobacco and Cigars.—Mr. John Sherer, so well and so favorably known, late of Federal street, Allegheny, has purchased the first-class and popular tobacco, snuff and cigar store of Mr. Daniel Haggerty, No. 87 Fifth street, which he will reopen to-day. The store has been refitted in an elegant manner, and an entire new stock of all brands of smoking and chewing tobaccos, snuffs, cigars of the best quality, meerschaum pipes, tubes, &c., has been opened at very reasonable prices. Call in and look through the stock.

Tanner Clubs, and all who intend to participate in to-day's procession, will find it to their advantage to call at Pittock's this morning to complete their equipments in caps, capes, belts, legings, &c.

Christian Advocate.

The annual meeting of the Publishing Committee of this paper was held yesterday at their office in Singerly's building, Third avenue. The Committee consists of Rev. W. B. Watkins, A. M., of Steubenville, Ohio; Rev. D. L. Dempsy, D.D., of Beaver, Pa.; Rev. R. H. Hurlburt, of Newcastle, Pa.; Rev. J. Tribby, of Geneva, Ohio, and Rev. G. Martin and Rev. A. J. Lyda, of Wheeling, West Virginia. The report of the Committee shows the paper to be in a most prosperous condition, the receipts being largely in advance of any previous year. The Committee deemed it advisable on account of the great increase of editorial labor consequent upon the enlargement of the paper, which took place some time ago, to appoint an assistant editor whose time should be wholly devoted to the duties of the office; and it being considered expedient to elect a Minister of one of the patronizing conferences, the choice fell upon Rev. E. A. Johnson, of Jamestown, New York, who is said to be eminently qualified to fill the position.

The Committee cordially endorse the editorial management of Rev. S. H. Nesbit, D.D., and tendering thanks to Rev. W. H. Kinkaid for valuable editorial assistance, which will doubtless still be continued, and to J. A. Moore, Esq., business manager, for capable and laborious service.

Centre Avenue Property, Minersville.

The handsomely situated and very desirable property of W. M. Gormly, Esq., on Centre avenue, Minersville, now city of Pittsburgh, is advertised in our columns, under auction head, for sale. This fine homestead has been sub-divided into seven large lots; on one of which is the excellent brick double mansion, and on another is a two-story frame dwelling. The improvements are complete in every comfort and convenience. This opportunity is very inviting to purchasers. For particulars, see McIlwaine's auction advertisement.

Malicious Mischief.—W. J. McFetridge made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging David Jones with malicious mischief. It appears that Jones assaulted a small boy and abused him for marching in a Republican procession, and the boy to get away from him ran into the prosecutor's store, 480 Penn street. Jones followed him, but the boy was protected by Mr. McFetridge, whereupon Jones went out and maliciously broke the glass in the window. He will have a hearing this morning.

Large Castings.—Two large castings have just been successfully completed at the Fort Pitt Foundry, being a part of the machinery for the new St. Louis Water Works, the owners of the Fort Pitt Foundry having the contract for supplying the same. The castings just completed consist of a "walking beam," weighing twenty-six tons, and is thirty feet long and seven feet wide, and a monster cylinder, weighing thirteen tons, and is fourteen feet long and seven feet in diameter.

To Epicures.—To all that class of persons called epicures who know how to enjoy the good things of this life, the arrival of the oyster season is hailed with delight, and we would take occasion to say to all who are fond of the bivalves, and desire to partake of them where they are prepared in the most palatable manner possible, to call at Holtzheimer's dining rooms. Fifth avenue, next door to the Postoffice. You can get them there in every conceivable style, and can also get anything else usually found in a first class restaurant.

Fall and Winter Dry Goods.—New fall and winter goods in endless variety are now arriving at Bates & Bell's, No. 21 Fifth street. Ladies will find many new novelties to please and delight them in the way of dress goods, shawls and sacques. Call in and see for yourselves. The entire stock of summer goods is being closed out at most reasonable prices.

Illuminate.—Republicans residing on the line of the procession to-night should illuminate their dwellings, put off fire works and hang out flags and transparencies. W. P. Hunker & Co., Nos. 222 and 224 Liberty street, have on hand a splendid lot of fireworks suitable for the demonstration to-night.

Twenty-first Ward.—The Assessor of the Twenty-first ward will be at Huber's store, on the Frankstown road, in said ward, Wednesday, between 6 and 7 o'clock p. m. All those not having been assessed should call upon him at that time and place.

The construction of the Nicolson pavement does not prevent the ladies from attending the great sale of dry goods and trimmings at W. W. Morehead's, No. 81 Market, where goods are being sold at unusually low rates.

81 Market Street is the place the ladies go to purchase dry goods and trimmings. The immense stock of fall and winter goods now being opened at this establishment offers superior advantages to purchasers.

New Treatment.—For chronic diseases of the eye, ear, head, throat, lungs, heart, stomach, liver, &c., at Dr. Aborn's Medical and Surgical Rooms, 134 Smithfield street, half a square from the Postoffice. No charge for consultation. tf

The Friends of Seymour and Blair.

Among the men who go for Seymour and Blair are

All the rebel Generals,
All the rebel Colonels,
All the rebel privates,
All the Executive officers of the Confederate Government,
All the men who starved our prisoners, at Salisbury, Andersonville, Libby and other pens in which more than forty thousand of our soldiers gave up the ghost,
All the rebel agents abroad,
All the blockade runners,
All the burners in New York and the threatened burners in Chicago,
All the poisoners and all the men who wanted to introduce cholera and yellow fever into the North,
All the fire-in-the-rear-men,
All the draft rioters,
All the bounty jumpers,
All the men who discouraged enlistments,
All the men who rejoiced over rebel victories,
All the men who were sad when the Union armies triumphed,
All those who assailed the national credit,
All those engaged in the massacre of Fort Pillow,
All like Beauregard, who proposed to raise the black flag and give no quarter,
All those who are for slavery as the policy of the nation,
All those who condemn freedom as the inevitable corollary of Democratic principles,
All who want to stamp the humble and the lowly into the dust,
All who want capital to own its labor,
All who are not in favor of paying a full day's wages for a faithful day's work,
All the men who do not believe in the equality of mankind, before the law,
All who approve the assassination of Lincoln.
